Report Russian Forces Massing Near Yugoslavia

Unconfirmed Reports Tell Of Troops Being Massed In Romania And Hungary

SOVIETS REJECT BID FOR PEACE (BULLETIN)

BELGRADE, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Five Soviet armored divisions, totalling 55,000 men and backed by warplanes, were reported massed near Yugoslavia's borders today and Marshal Tito dispatched an envoy to the United Nations, possibly to lodge a protest.

BELGRADE, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Russian troops and tanks, five armored divisions strong and backed by warplanes, were reported today massing in Romania and Hungary, only 25 miles from Yugoslavia and 80 miles from Marshal Tito's capital of Belgrade.

The reports came from usually reliable sources, but were without official confirmation.

They stated that units of two Red armored divisions, with aerial support, have concentrated in Romania, north of Yugoslavia in the past 36 hours. Elements of three Soviet tank divisions were earlier reported in southern Hungary.

These reported military moves by Moscow followed another violent Kremlin blast against Marshal Tito. The Soviets rejected a Belgrade peace bid, and termed the Yugoslav leader a "wild fascist". The new note marked a high point in the boiling world war between Premier Stalin and his erstwhile ally.

Apple crop over western Pennsylvania seems to be unusually good this year. For several years past the crop has been light.

City and county streets and highways have been painted with new safety lines in the vicinity of schools in preparation for resumption of school terms next week.

A gentleman buying a chicken in a local poultry store really got his money's worth Wednesday morning. When the hen was removed from the scales, she had just laid an egg.

Special patrols are being arranged for the highways in an effort to prevent accidents and fatalities on the roads on the last week end holiday period of the year. Unusually heavy traffic is anticipated.

One of the results of the tree planting efforts in the state some years ago is to be seen in the several miles of tree lined highway between Brookville and Cook's forest. Hundreds of large pine trees are now in evidence along the highway as a result of a state roadside planting program.

Site of Camp Reynolds near Greenville, which during the war days took care of around 100,000 troops at one time, has almost entirely reverted back to farmland. Most of the hundreds of buildings having been removed. Some of the structures which were erected along the railroad, have been turned into manufacturing establishments and are still standing.

United States weather statistics for the 24-hour period ending at 9 a. m. today follow:

Maximum temperature, 82.
Minimum temperature, 53.
Precipitation, .06 inches.
River stage, 5.7 feet.

Statistics for the same date a year ago, follow:

Maximum temperature, 84.
Minimum temperature, 59.
No precipitation.

Take Steps To Ask Bids On Wing For Jameson Hospital

Contracts for the erection of the wing to the Jameson Memorial hospital will be awarded sometime early in February.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the hospital, today shortly before noon this action was decided upon. Roger W. Rowland, chairman of the board said the members approved, unanimously, a proposal to advertise for bids in January and let the contract in February. Construction would start soon after the letting of the contract.

Retain Consultant

The board also decided at today's meeting to retain Dr. Lucius Wilson, nationally known hospital planning and construction consultant to work with the architects and builders.

Dr. Wilson has specialized in this field and was selected here after a group of such experts was considered.

For some time it had been hoped that it might be possible to get some Federal aid in the erection of the new wing. Chairman Rowland said today that the indications were that the priority for Jameson Memorial is too far down to warrant any further delay in letting the contract and going ahead with the work.

One hundred years ago tomorrow, September 1, 1349 Lawrence county became a political unit of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Thursday night, September 1, 1949, the county will mark the occasion with a mass meeting on the court house property.

The celebration will not be an elaborate affair, there will be no carnival attractions or free lemonade. Instead it will be a meeting in which the history of the county will be reviewed and some music will be heard.

Four Speakers

Four speakers will be heard. City Solicitor Robert M. White will review the history of the county in five cycles. Judge Robert E. McCreary of Beaver county and Judge George H. Rowley of Mercer county will speak as representatives of the two counties from which Lawrence was carved. United States Senator Francis J. Myers of Philadelphia will be present and speak although his subject has not been announced.

The American Legion Band will play and the local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America will present a number of old time ballads under the direction of "Dy" Jones. Judge W. Walter Braham will be the chairman of the meeting.

The meeting starts at eight o'clock on the parking lot of the court house.

Three additional burglaries and robberies have been admitted by John Biggerstaff, of 606 West Clayton street, and local police and county authorities, together with state police, are checking to see if there are not some other unsolved jobs which can be traced to him. Biggerstaff was arrested Monday afternoon.

Biggerstaff was arraigned before Alderman L. C. Mantz on Tuesday afternoon, and pleaded guilty to one burglary, after which he was taken back to the county jail, and will be arraigned on the other charges as soon as a complete record has been made of his operations.

In addition to the ten burglaries which he admitted late Monday and early Tuesday, Biggerstaff admitted to Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna, after articles stolen from him.

President Truman was said today to favor Congressional investigation of lobbying by "influential and dangerous" men operating out of New York and other cities.

Rep. Sabath (D) Ill., said the President believed that Congress and the executive departments of the government "are being imposed upon by these lobbyists, many of whom are not registered."

The chairman of the House rules committee asserted the President told him at a White House conference that the lobbyists have "very expensive offices" outside of Washington from which they carry on their activities.

Sabath added that Mr. Truman favored an investigation by a committee composed of "fair but strong men" and expressed the hope that the House inquiry into lobbying would get underway "as soon as possible."

The House has already voted to launch an investigation, but Speaker Rayburn (D) Texas, has deferred naming the special committee until after the House returns from its recess September 21.

Legionnaires At Convention Get Down To Business

Parades And Hoop-La At Philadelphia Are Side-tracked Today

DELEGATES TACKLE MANY VITAL ISSUES

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—(INS)—America's Legionnaires temporarily stuffed hoop-la and madeap antics into duffle bags today and settled down to the serious business of advising Uncle Sam how to behave at home and abroad.

Their stirring 12-hour convention parade behind them, the 6,000 delegates to the Legion's 31st national conclave began considering 600 resolutions reflecting the thinking of three million veterans throughout America.

The five million dollar spectacle of brass, beauty and braid which dazzled Philadelphia yesterday was just a memory today as most

Thirteen Nurses Given Diplomas

New Castle Hospital Training School Graduation On Tuesday Evening

REV. FR. C. A. KANE MAKES ADDRESS

Diplomas were presented to thirteen nursing students of the New Castle Hospital School of Nursing on Tuesday evening.

The graduation exercises were conducted at 8 p. m. in the Ben Franklin High School auditorium, with many spectators in attendance.

Under the auspices of the directors of the hospital and Sisters of St. Francis, ceremonies were soon underway. John Maher, chairman of the School of Nursing Council presiding.

Mr. Maher voiced his hope for the best in future years for the graduates.

Dr. Morris Davis, president of the medical staff brought greetings from the staff. "Have pride in your profession, it is an honor to serve God and humanity," he said.

Confer Diplomas

J. Preston Flaherty, first vice-president of the board of directors of the New Castle Hospital, presented the diplomas to the graduating students.

He first extended congratulations to the class from the board of directors. "You have completed a course of instructions," he stated, "now as you leave this hall, you will all be registered nurses. This should give you pride and pleasure." The students received their diplomas.

Father Kane Speaks

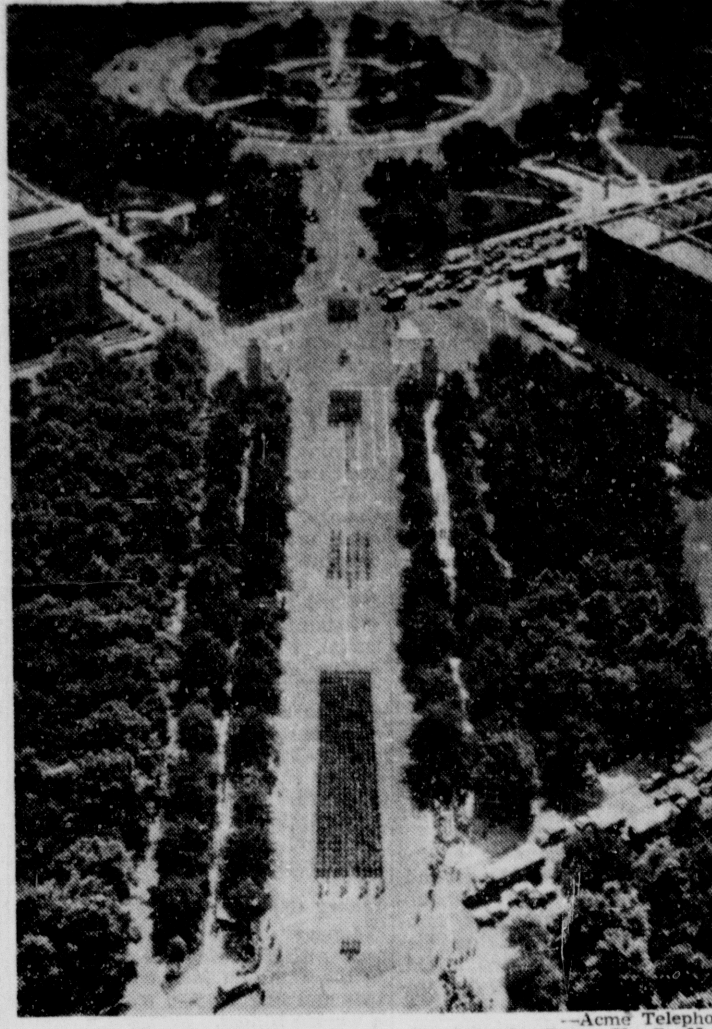

Rev. Fr. C. A. Kane, pastor of St. James' church, New Bedford, as the principal speaker of the evening, mentioned the various illnesses which afflict humans, Cripps And Bevin Depart For U. S.

Coming To U. S. For Vital Dollar Talks In Washington Starting Sept. 7

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Aug. 31.—(INS)—British Foreign Secretary Bevin and Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps left for the United States today for the vital dollar talks starting in Washington Sept. 7.

Cripps and Bevin stood arm-in-arm on the deck of the Liner Mauritania and smiled at the dockside crowd shouting "good luck" and "bring us back some dollars."

Before sailing, Bevin told newsmen: "This is one of the most important missions of history. We go as a united team representing a united nation. . . . We will try to achieve a solution to give all peoples peace and prosperity."

He said that he "welcomed" President Truman's speech listing a financially stable Britain as a necessity for world peace.

Long Occupancy Of Japan Seen By MacArthur

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(INS)—The New York Journal-American reported today that Gen. Douglas MacArthur believes U. S. forces must occupy Japan indefinitely.

MacArthur was quoted as saying "We must make certain that Japan does not fall into the lap of the Soviet Union."

The supreme Allied commander in the Pacific told David Sentner, the newspaper's Washington correspondent: "We must remain in Japan until such time as we can trust the Soviet Union to negotiate a treaty providing for the true neutrality of Japan."

Sentner visited MacArthur in Tokyo on the first stop of a 20,000-mile flight through the Far East to find out "the truth about China," whether American aid can stop a Sovietized China, and what a Communist Asia would mean to America.

MacArthur was quoted by Sentner yesterday as advocating a "ringing announcement" that America will support anti-Communists anywhere and everywhere in the Far East.

Cool Weather To Linger Here

(By International News Service)

The weatherman promised today that cool weather would linger in western Pennsylvania for a few more days at least.

He advised that scattered thundershowers today and tonight can be expected, with high temperatures in the middle 70s. Tomorrow will be cloudier with similar moderate temperatures.

The mercury dipped below the 60 mark last night in many sections of the district. Pittsburgh minimum was 58 degrees, after a high of 82 yesterday.

Vaughan Again Under Fire By Senate Probers

Disclose That General Was Investigated By F.B.I. On Income Tax Fixing Charge

CLEARED ON CHARGE PROBERS INFORMED

By GLENN M. GREEN (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Senate "five percent" probers learned today that Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan was investigated and cleared by the FBI in connection with charges that he "attempted to fix an income tax case."

Vaughan, President Truman's military aide, testified that FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover informed him he was under investigation.

Vaughan's assistant, Col. C. J. Mara, testified that Assistant Attorney General Peyton Ford informed him several weeks ago that "there was nothing to implicate Vaughan" in any tax fixing case.

Mara said he had been sent to the Justice department to "see if Gen. Vaughan had been investigated on a charge of tax bribery" and that the information he obtained from Ford was the result of his visit.

The FBI investigation was disclosed shortly after Vaughan returned to the witness stand for his second day of questioning in the "five percent" inquiry.

Pressure Attempt?

He was asked by Sen. McCarthy (R) Wis. if he knew anything of an FBI investigation into charges that he had taken money from liquor interests for attempting to pressure the Agriculture department on grain allocations.

Vaughan replied that he knew

Extra State Police Will Cruise Roads

HARRISBURG, Aug. 31.—(INS)—State Police will cruise Pennsylvania's highways in unmarked patrol cars in addition to the well-known "ghost" cars over the Labor Day weekend.

State Police Commissioner C. M. Wilhelm pointed out that the patrols will be maintained on a round-the-clock basis.

Inconspicuous cruiser cars will be added to weekend patrol duty "to protect travelers from the menace of the comparatively few drivers who insist on ignoring the safety of themselves and others," Wilhelm said.

"The State Police will do everything within their power to insure the safety of travelers and expedite traffic during this critical period when it is expected that more cars than ever before will be on the highways," he explained.

Wilhelm pointed out that the 1948 Labor Day weekend resulted in deaths to 26 persons on Pennsylvania Highways.

Huge Waves Are Lashing Islands Including Honshu

Immediate Evacuation Of 60,000 In Humagaya, North Of Tokyo Ordered

HEAVY DAMAGE IS BEING CAUSED

By JOHN RICH (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, Sept. 1.—(Thursday)—(INS)—A destructive typhoon, accompanied by huge ocean waves and deluging rains, hammered Japan's main island of Honshu, including Tokyo, last night and early today with howling winds up to 80 miles an hour.

The violent storm, which caused death and injuries as well as property damage, reached the Tokyo metropolitan area on the Kanto plain late last night after lashing the American-occupied Yokosuka naval base on Tokyo Bay.

Numerous houses and other buildings were smashed or unroofed, rivers rose to flood levels and railroads and highways were severed as the typhoon, dubbed "Kitty" by weathermen, screamed north-northeast across populous Honshu.

At midnight the police ordered immediate evacuation of 60,000 inhabitants from Kumagaya, 20 miles northeast of Tokyo, as the Ara River first threatened to burst its banks under the torrential downpours.

TOKYO, Aug. 31.—(INS)—A typhoon struck the American-occupied Yokosuka naval base late today and was screaming north directly toward Tokyo with winds up to 80 miles an hour.

The storm, named "Kitty" by the weathermen, is expected to reach Tokyo by tonight.

Many New State Laws Effective On Thursday

Some 249 New Laws Officially On Statute Books On September 1

HARRISBURG, Aug. 31.—(INS)—There will be some legal changes made tomorrow.

That's when 249 new state laws are placed officially on the statute books.

Most important of the new statutes taking effect is one requiring all vehicles to come to a full stop when approaching a school bus loading or discharging children.

To Reduce Accidents

Applying to 3,000,000 motorists and 300,000 children who regularly ride school buses, the act is designed to eliminate school bus accidents. The law will be effective in all non-residential areas and places where there are no off-highway loading zones.

One clause of the act requires all new buses and those re-painted henceforth to be painted "National school bus chrome"—a brighter shade than the present orange.

G. A. R. Final Session Ends

(BULLETIN)
INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 31.—(INS) The Boys in Blue have stood their last formation.
The Grand Army of the Republic ended their 83rd encampment with a decision never again to call the roll of survivors of the thinning Blue line.
Commander-in-Chief Theodore A. Penland, of Vancouver, Wash., pounded the gavel and said in a weak voice:
"I close the final business session of the Grand Army of the Republic."
The six centenarians—veterans of the war between the states—slumped noticeably.

Local Dairy Has Enjoyable Outing

Linger Light Dairy held their annual picnic Monday, August 29, at Bull Park, Sharon.
A ladies mulligan game and a men's mulligan game were played in the afternoon. At 6 p. m. seventy employees, families, and friends enjoyed a delicious picnic supper.
The evening was spent informally with games as the main diversion. Door prize was won by Miss Mariou Thompson. Other prizes were won by "Butch" Vatter, Edna Mae Forsberg, Joanne McCreary, Donald O'Leary, Forbie Pitzer, John Marino, Mrs. Leona Logan, Roland Nord, Bob McCartney, Mrs. Shirley Duff and Mrs. Charlene Gilbert.

John Freeman Jr. Completes Training

FORT DIX, N. J., Aug. 31.—(INS) Recruit John Freeman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman, 119 North Mill street, has recently completed 14 weeks of basic training with the battle-famed 9th Infantry Division and will visit his home before reporting to his new duty assignment.
Prior to his enlistment in the army on April 22, 1949, Recruit Freeman was employed by the Castleton hotel. He attended New Castle senior high school.

MANY NEW STATE LAWS EFFECTIVE ON THURSDAY

color. Other sections require all buses to be equipped with front and rear stop signals and yearly examinations for drivers beginning July 1, 1950.
Other school laws effective tomorrow are topped by statutes providing more liberal pensions for retired teachers. In effect, the acts increase pensions to a $100 monthly minimum for nearly half of the commonwealth's retired classroom instructors.

Liquor Laws Change
Major changes in the state's liquor laws also will go into effect. The most noticeable change will be that requiring all liquor and beer establishments to remove all outdoor brand display advertising and signs, and limiting window and point-of-sale advertisements.

Other new liquor laws tighten eligibility requirements for hotel drink-dispensing permits and increase from 72 to 144 ounces the amount of beer permitted to be sold by taproom operators for off-the-premises consumption.
Chief changes in the motor code is a statute increasing from $50 to $100 the minimum damage required to be reported to the state revenue department in motor vehicle accidents.

A long-range highway program will be set in motion as the result of a new act which authorizes a $400,000 survey by an 11-man highway planning commission. The commission will report its findings to the governor by November 1, 1950.

Other New Laws
Other new laws will penalize with a maximum one year jail sentence, or $1,000 fine, any person maliciously furnishing false or libelous information to newsmen, newspapers, magazines, radio or television stations; make malicious loitering about a dwelling a punishable crime; allow Pennsylvania beneficiaries to collect payments from out-of-the-state mail order insurance companies with the aid of the State Insurance Department or federal courts; prohibit pharmacists to make rebates to physicians for prescription business.

Miss Helen Westlake, of the New Castle Senior High School faculty, as the evening speaker will discuss, "The Controversy of Ezra Pound." Any person who is interested in attending this Friday's meeting, which will be a "listener's meeting" with every-one participating in the discussion.

LEGIONNAIRES AT CONVENTION GET DOWN TO BUSINESS

of the doughboys of two world wars anxiously turned to the serious business of the convention.
Over 1,500,000 Spectators
More than 1,500,000 people cheered wildly from the sidewalks and skyscraper windows of mid-Philadelphia as the gigantic convention parade moved by on flag-dedicated avenues.

Legion Commander Perry Brown and Mayor Bernard Samuel held the spectacle as the "most magnificent pageant of patriotism ever seen in Philadelphia."

Hour after hour the colorful units strutted by, marching to the stirring strains of martial music while ticker tape and confetti poured in cascades from skyscraper windows. The weather was perfect. It was nearly midnight before the 60,000 marchers, including some 20,000 legionnaires, ended their multi-million dollar show.

Thrilling Spectacle
It was a thrilling spectacle from start to finish as grayed doughboys of 1917 strode briskly beside GI's of World War II.

In the huge parade, too, were smartly-stepping contingents from the army, navy, marine corps, air force, WAC and WAVes.
Thundering mechanized equipment rumbled along on the ground, while overhead soaring thunder-bombers, blimps and helicopters furnished a striking display of the nation's armed might.
Thousands upon thousands jammed the city, hall area after dark and converted the downtown section of Philadelphia into an atmosphere resembling New Year's Eve and V-E night combined.
But all that was behind the legionnaires today.

Approach Serious Side
At long last, they approached the serious side of the convention.
On the convention floor sharp battles are expected over some of measures, particularly on resolutions asking endorsement of the foreign arms aid program and federal aid to education.

Also of major interest is the Legion's expected stand on aid to China.
Domestically, the Legion still looks upon housing as one of the major problems. A number of units are advocating a drop in the interest rates on GI home loans from four to three per cent.
Addresses by Veterans Administrator Carl R. Gray, Defense Secretary Louis Johnson, and William "Wild Bill" Donovan, head of the nation's cloak and dagger system during the war, highlighted today's agenda.

Meanwhile, swirling through the convention business was a feverish undercurrent of electioneering as candidates for national command sought support at tomorrow's balloting.
George N. Craig, 40-year-old Brazil, Ind. attorney, still looms as the No. 1 candidate to succeed Perry Brown of Texas in the $45,000-a-year post.
Strong bids continue to be made, however, by two other young World War II veterans—James F. Green, 33, of Omaha, and 28-year-old Eric Coker of Dawson, Ga.

Mrs. Temple B. Boyd
Mrs. Margaret Catherine Boyd, aged 82, 212 Stewart place, widow of Temple B. Boyd, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Stern, 212 Stewart place, where she made her home, at 1:05 a. m. today following a short illness.

Born in Wheatland, Pa., August 27, 1867, she was a daughter of Andrew and Elizabeth Vankirk McConnell. She had resided in this district her entire lifetime. She was preceded in death by her husband to whom she was married on June 25, 1888, in 1946.

Mrs. Boyd was a member of the First Christian church.
Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Raymond Stern of this city; four grandchildren, and five great grandchildren. Two grandchildren preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p. m. from the Offutt funeral home, North Mercer street, with Rev. Arthur D. Wenger, associate pastor of the First Christian church to officiate. Burial will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home this evening and Thursday evening, from seven to nine o'clock.

Theodore E. Gray
Theodore E. Gray, aged 84 years, who resided with his daughter, Mrs. Lester K. Stoner, of R. D. 6, New Castle, died suddenly this morning at 7:35 o'clock, of a heart attack while eating breakfast.

Mr. Gray was born in Cambria County, but of recent years, had been making his home with his daughter at the above address.

His body was removed to the Millard S. Leslie funeral home in Pittsburgh to be prepared for burial. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

In addition to Mrs. Stoner, Mr. Gray is survived by the following children: Mrs. Harry Reimer, Alvin F. Gray, Mrs. Norman Toomey, Walter H. Gray, Howard D. Gray, and Mrs. Nick Gogniat, all of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Russell Reed, of Ligonier, Pa.; and Mrs. James F. Clusterman, of Zero Beach, Fla.

Ignacy (Nick) Sniezek
Ignacy (Nick) Sniezek, aged 66 years, of 1806 Moravia street, died in the Jameson Memorial hospital, this morning at 6:30 o'clock, after a week's illness.

Mr. Sniezek was born in Poland, O., on March 4, 1883, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sniezek. For 47 years he resided in this city, and worked as the United Engineering and Foundry company. The deceased was a member of the Holy Trinity Polish National Catholic church. He belonged to the Polish National Alliance Group 314, and the Spolna Gab. Nar.

His wife, Mrs. Mary Sniezek, survives, and children: Alex. Joseph, Marion, this city; Mrs. Louis Locanto, of Arnold, Pa., and Mrs. George Salak, this city.
He leaves two brothers, Vincent Sniezek and Andrew Sniezek, this city, and six grandchildren.

A daughter, Mrs. Melvin Shoaff preceded him in death in 1942.

Funeral services will be Friday morning at 9 o'clock in the Noga funeral home, South Mill at Reynolds, followed by a requiem mass at 9:30 a. m., in the Holy Trinity National Catholic church. Rev. Fr. Edward Kuzminski will be in charge. Burial will be in home, where friends may call any-Holy Trinity cemetery.

The body is at the Noga funeral home after 7 o'clock this evening, and Thursday afternoon and evening.

Bega Funeral
Funeral services for John Bega, R. D. 2, Enon Valley, were held this morning at 9 o'clock, in the Noga funeral home, followed by a requiem mass at 9:30 o'clock, in the Holy Trinity Russian Orthodox church, Rev. Fr. Michael Rusnyk officiating.

Interment was in Greenwood cemetery, with Francis Martin, Harry Emery, David Peach, Frank Sladuski, Gregory Andriuk, and Frank Iwashko, serving as pallbearers.

VAUGHAN AGAIN UNDER FIRE BY SENATE PROBERS

nothing about such an FBI investigation but did admit there was an investigation on the other charge.
In referring to the liquor interests, McCarthy named specifically the "Whiteley corporation" which he said was owned by New York "racketeer" Frankie Costello, a Phil Castell, race track figure William Heils, and the Schenley interests.

Vaughan denied any dealings with Costello and denied knowing that Heils was in the liquor business. He admitted yesterday receiving 1946 campaign contributions from Heils and John Maragon.

The general puffed nervously at his cigar during the questioning and seemed considerably less sure of himself than he was yesterday.

Tells Of Visit
McCarthy, unsatisfied with Vaughan's answers, had Vaughan's aide, Col. C. J. Mara, sworn in to tell of a visit he made to the Justice department to find out about the FBI investigation.

Vaughan said a claim was made to the Justice Department because of "something in the papers, that came out in one of the columns." He said Hoover told him about it and Vaughan promised to cooperate.

The White House aide said two FBI agents called on him, that he turned over his financial records to them and answered their questions. But he denied having been told of the grain allocation charges.

Vaughan said:
"I never heard of that. That is not what Hoover told me."
McCarthy noted that yesterday he said he had felt "all along" that Vaughan had not "profited financially personally" and "still felt that is pretty much my opinion." Today he asked that the latter part of his statement be stricken from the records.

Accusation Made
Vaughan said of the FBI investigation:
"Hoover told me I was accused of accepting a bribe for attempting to fix a tax case."

Vaughan said he understood that claim was made to justice "at the request of members of the press."

McCarthy's pursuit of the question about Schenley and the Costello interests brought a protest from Sen. Robertson (D. Va., who called on McCarthy to supply evidence to justify his queries before the hearing ends.

Robertson asked if the inquiry were a "fishing expedition." McCarthy retorted:
"If the Senator had followed this investigation throughout he would know that this is not a fishing expedition."

McCarthy promised to bring out further evidence to justify his line of inquiry.

He announced that he would ask Vaughan later in the day if he would object to having the complete FBI files on the case given to the committee.

REPORT RUSSIAN FORCES MASSING NEAR YUGOSLAVIA

ally, touched off in June 1948, when Tito was ousted from the cominform.

Encourage Anti-Tito Moves
In this connection, it was believed that the Russian military action might be intended to encourage anti-Tito moves by pro-Cominform groups in Yugoslavia or dis-sident Yugoslav army officers.

The sources reporting the Russian movements gave the picture: The Red army was said to have established a headquarters at Timisoara in northwestern Romania. This city is 25 miles from the Yugoslav border and 80 miles from Belgrade. Fast-moving tanks, meeting no opposition, could negotiate such a distance within 12 hours.

The forces in Hungary were said to be in the Keckemet area, less than 50 miles from the Yugoslav frontier.
On the diplomatic front, Yugoslavia indicated strongly that it is not retreating one whit. Yesterday, Vice-Premier Edvard Kardelj and Minister of State Milovan Djilas were named as leaders of Belgrade's delegation to the September meeting of the United Nations general assembly in New York.

Both Kardelj and Djilas are on the Kremlin's blacklist.

Sam Wilson, a Troy, N. Y. meat packer who supplied the United States Army with beef during the War of 1812, was the original of the cartoonist's figure of Uncle Sam, symbolizing the United States.

wherein the nurse of today can have a great part in their discovery.
It is extremely important to have the spirit of nursing," he told the graduates. In order to receive, you must give."

Father Kane then elaborated on one of the nation's great problems: alcoholism, and what the nurse in the great undertaking of eliminating alcoholism.

"Education is the only way to be able to dispel this problem," he pointed out. A great deal is being done, but even more must be done before many of the afflicted millions can be returned to Society. The good nurses' work ties in with every disease, and through her aid, we can regain these people and make them worthwhile citizens," he said in conclusion.

Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church opened the program with invocation and closed with benediction. The Imperial orchestra provided the appropriate music during the graduation exercises. Sousa's "Semper Fidelis" march was the processional, and the "Stars and Stripes Forever" was the recessional.

During the intermission they played, Brahms, Hungarian Dance No. V, and Verdi's march from "Aida."

A violin solo was presented by talented and young, Angelo Filigenzi, accompanied on the piano by Miss Agnes Zaczeco. "Adoration," by Borowski was his selection.

COUNTY CENTENNIAL PROGRAM THURSDAY

court house. In case of rain the meeting will be held in court room number one.
A program has been prepared which contains a short history of the county and a list of all the officers who have served the various departments of county government since the county was formally instituted.

Parade To Precede
Preceding the program at the court house, a parade will move from the Legion Home on Jefferson street. The parade moves out at seven o'clock headed by the Legion band.

Marching units will consist of the American Legion, the Cooties, the Catholic War Veterans, the 229th Battalion, and the Marine detachment from Ellwood City, and others.

Judge Brahm today stressed the fact that this centennial observation is for the entire county. Public officials of the various subdivisions of the county especially are urged to be present.

REPORTS LOCAL PLANT ENTERED

Russell Graham, night superintendent of the Johnson Bronze Company reported to police last night, that he heard a noise in the new building of the company, and heard someone running away, but was unable to find him.

Officers H. L. Richards and Goodman investigated, but were unable to find anyone in the vicinity.

JENNIE GIERLACH SHOWER HONOREE

On Sunday afternoon Miss Jennie (Jane) Gerlach, bride-elect of September, was honored at a lovely shower given by Mrs. J. Wolanski at her home.

Miss Gerlach received a number of useful gifts of a miscellaneous nature which were placed beneath a gaily decorated umbrella in pink and blue.

A tasty lunch was served to approximately 35 persons by the hostess, aided by her daughter, Mrs. M. Kozlowski, Jr. The centerpiece consisted of a beautiful bride-doll carrying a miniature bouquet of calla lilies, which was made and presented to the honoree by Mrs. M. Kozlowski, Jr.

The doll was placed at the foot of an aisle outlined by a row of fresh cut garden flowers and pink and blue candles on either side.

Miss Jennie (Jane) Gerlach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gerlach, of R. D. 5, will become the bride of Edward Wolanski, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wolanski, of Pollock avenue, at an open church wedding at 1:30 p. m. September 10. Scene of the ceremony is to be the Holy Trinity church.

Short-Circuit Club

Members of the Short-Circuit club recently held their meeting at the home of Miss Laura De Angelis, 13 W. Madison avenue.

Special guests were Miss Alda Lombardo, Frances Lombardo, Miss Rita Felice and Miss Catherine Vellucci of Erie.

Cards and chat were the main diversions of the evening. Door prize was captured by Miss Alda Lombardo. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, aided by Mrs. Frank DeMedal.

Date of the next meeting will be announced later.

ALICE MOSER FETED AT FAREWELL PARTY

Miss Janet McCollum entertained a group of friends on a recent evening at her home on Hazel street, in honor of Miss Alice Moser.

The surprise farewell event was in the form of a wiener roast held on the lawn of the McCollum home.

An enjoyable evening was spent informally with games as the diverting feature.

The honoree was presented with a lovely gift from the guests.

Miss Moser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moser, Walmo, will enter the Allegheny General Hospital School of Nursing as a student nurse on September 12.

SIDORCHUK-TONTSCH AFFIANCED, REVEALED

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sidorchuk, 1117 Cascade street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to John Tontsch, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tontsch, 914 Beckford street.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Philathea Society

Philathea Missionary society of the Central Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. S. C. Willson, Old Pittsburgh road, on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The regular meeting will be in charge of Miss Blanche Bright, president.

Mrs. John Atkinson will be chairman for the tea which will follow the regular meeting.

Dorcas Class To Dine

Dorcas class of Central Christian church will have a tureen dinner this evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Philip Moore, of Gardner. Those, needing transportation, are to gather at the church at 5:30 o'clock.

BRIDAL PAIR-ELECT HONORED AT SHOWER

Miss Bettie Lou Lutz, bride-elect of September, and her fiancé, Jack McMillin, were guests of honor at a pre-nuptial kitchen shower given recently by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Booth at their home, 1014 Becker street.

Relatives of the honored couple composed the guest list. Games occupied the guests and at a late hour lunch was served buffet style. The buffet table was centered with a doll dressed as a bride surrounded with bouquets of colorful gladioli. Later the doll was given to the bride-elect.

The bridal couple-elect received many useful gifts for use in their future kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rahauser of Lewistown, Pa., were special guests for the occasion.

Miss Lutz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clare M. Lutz, 928 East Washington street. Mr. McMillin is the son of Mrs. Enid McMillin, 1234 Huron avenue.

They will be united in marriage at a ceremony to take place September 10 at 7:30 p. m. in the First Baptist church.

KIRKERS OBSERVE 59TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Tadd Kirker, 213 East Garfield avenue, observed their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary on Saturday, August 27.

In honor of the occasion, a family reunion was held Sunday at Milton Dam.

A picnic dinner was served in the grove and later the family members returned to the Kirker residence where they enjoyed a buffet supper. A large three-tiered anniversary cake decorated the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ammon of Flint, Mich., was a special guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirker were married in New Castle. They are the parents of three children and have five grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

McBRIDE AUXILIARY TO HOLD CORN ROAST

Miss Rosemary Louise Factor, daughter of Joseph A. Factor, 303 Beaver street, has chosen Saturday, September 10, as the date of her marriage to Paul Lombardo, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lombardo of 423 East Lutton street.

The open church ceremony will be performed in St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Fr. C. H. Becker will officiate using the double ring service.

C. H. I. C. Club

Mrs. Helen McKinley, Willow Grove, was hostess Monday afternoon at a 1 o'clock dinner for members of the C. H. I. C. club.

Mrs. Helen Gordon assisted the hostess in serving the delicious roast beef dinner. The table was attractively arranged with a centerpiece of cut garden flowers.

Following the dinner, 500 provided the afternoon diversion with honors going to Mrs. Charlotte McCullough, Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Georgiana Walsh.

On Monday, September 26, Mrs. Helen Gordon will be hostess to the club associates at her home, 19 Kurtz street.

PANTHERETTE CLUB EVENT SEPTEMBER 14

Plans for a corn and wiener roast on Wednesday, September 14, were discussed at the Pantherette's club meeting Tuesday evening in the South Mill street club rooms.

The outing will be at Venditto's camp, Cottage Grove, starting at 7 p. m. A chartered bus will leave the Sons of Italy at 7 p. m.

Mrs. A. J. Capezio is chairman and her aides are: Mrs. Anthony Ambrose, Mrs. Robert Patus, Mrs. James Scarazzo, Mrs. Steve DeAugustine, Mrs. Anthony Fuleo, Mrs. William Cubellis, Mrs. John DiCarlo and Mrs. Joseph DeRobbio.

The committee will have a special meeting Monday at 8 p. m. on September 12, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Capezio, of Agnew street.

Card playing was the pastime, and later the group enjoyed a delicious lunch.

Hostesses were: Mrs. A. C. Ricciardi, Mrs. Ralph Lerner, Mrs. Stanley Litrenta and Mrs. Rocco Litrenta. September 27 is the next meeting.

DEGREE OF HONOR HAS PARK OUTING

A delightful evening was had by the past presidents of the Degree of Honor Tuesday at Cascade Park.

Hostess for the group was Mrs. Paul Jones. An enjoyable corn roast was held, and later a delicious dinner was served to those present. Lovely gladioli and vivid fall asters made charming centerpieces for the tables.

Business was conducted by the president, Mrs. Virginia Drumheller. Special guest of the event was Mrs. Marie Rockwell, state president, from Sharpville.

Cards were the main diversion of the evening. Prizes were captured by the Mesdames Anna Hawk, Lillian Conner and Marie Rockwell.

WONDERS AND PORTENTS

If there is anything to the ancient superstition that bizarre happenings reflect the gathering anger of the gods, we'd all better jump into bed and pull the covers up over our heads. This has been a week of wonders and portents.

From New Jersey came reports of ghost-riders in the sky—echoing hoofbeats, rattle of chains, two pedestrian ghosts (one lady, one gentleman), and a phosphorescent light. (It turned out to be a cow chained to a dragging log).

Florida was hit by a hurricane that had gone traipsing through the Bahamas without the usual "eye," a misbegotten freak of nature.

In northern Norway, a tribe of Lapps demanded price control on reindeer meat. They'll probably get it, too—for Dasher, and Dancer, and Prancer, and Vixen, for Comet, and Cupid, and Dunder, and Blitzen.

In New York City, an immaculate Tin Lizzie (1921 Model T Ford) broke down on West Fortieth Street. No wonder, she had 243,000 miles on her. The 75-year-old owner finally got her cranked up again and off they chugged, still going strong.

In Detroit, a hose suddenly developed independent life, started burrowing underground with such vigor that a car couldn't pull it up—it pulled the car back a foot. That tale beat any recent prize-winning entry in liars' club contests.

In such a week, any Roman emperor would have gone frantic consulting the auguries.

TELEVISION IN COLOR

Federal Communications Commission, alphabetical agency which is wrestling with present and future problems of television transmission in this country, has had good reason to see spots before its eyes. Presumably, in the past, these have been of the conventional black and white variety. Now they are in full color.

Both the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Company, giants of the television industry, have submitted plans for full-color transmission. The CBS plan has been before the FCC for weeks. The commission deferred action on it because it would have required the owners of the 2,000,000 sets in use to buy and install an adapter, price unquoted, before they could see on their screens a telecast in full color, or the black and white version of it.

Now NBC announces it has submitted its own plan to the FCC, and it sounds as if set owners would be getting a better break. Television fans can tune in the black and white version of an NBC color telecast on their present sets. To get the color broadcast, an adapter can be bought for a "modest fee."

Certain changes in transmitting stations would be necessary, requiring a small amount of new equipment. Merits of both systems, which differ in other technical aspects, will be argued at hearings to start on September 26. The hearings have exciting implications. Color television seems only a matter of months away.

SCHOOL DAYS NEARING

Approaching school days have cast their magic over the city. The spell is most noticeable in the shopping centers where the young of all ages are stocking up on school raiment and assorted paraphernalia.

Back to school time is probably the happiest of all the year. It is a period full of expectancy and surfeited with hope, free from the letdowns that sometimes come in actuality. For the primary grader clutching her first pencilbox and the collegian with a new fancy vest, it evokes tingles of anticipation.

In thousands of homes, waning summer is giving way to thoughts of things soon to come: The first leaves of autumn on the campus green, the camaraderie of old friends the challenge of new knowledge and fresh ideas, bright sunlight streaming into a quiet classroom.

Mother and dad, meanwhile, are having their private thoughts, too. They may be thinking of the family budget, of who will get the car on rainy mornings, of telegrams for additional funds from some far-off college town.

The educational process, it is obvious, is hardly limited to youth alone. In prospect or while in progress, it's an education for young and old alike.

Reports from London indicate that the Labor government has been unable to entice the bluebirds back to the White Cliffs of Dover.

Automobiles of the future will be smaller, it is again predicted. If they make them any lower, flat heads, as well as hatless ones, may become the vogue.

American English is to replace the King's English, according to reports, and this seems logical. If they are to use American money they might as well learn to speak its language.

Tourists who visited Yellowstone Park complain they had to stand in a block-long line to buy a sandwich and were compelled to drive a hundred miles outside the park to find overnight accommodations. But they were forewarned the park is owned by the government, weren't they?

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

The Cominform has announced that it has "taken certain decisions" in the case of Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito and his stubborn refusal to bend the knee to Moscow. This is an ominous phrase. And quite logically it is echoing and reverberating throughout Europe. There is intensified speculation as to just what the decisions may have been and how far the Kremlin will go in its apparent effort to discredit and depose Tito, enabling establishment in Yugoslavia of the purely Russian brand of Communism that Marshal Joseph Stalin wants around his borders.

Actual measures will remain shrouded in secrecy and cloaked in misleading propaganda until the time has come for action.

Attempt To Scare
But there are some indications that for the present at least an attempt will be made to scare the western powers out of doing business with Tito. If successful, this would immediately throw the Yugoslavs into the arms of the Kremlin and Stalin would have won his battle without a shot.

Moscow's propaganda line soon may adopt the argument that the western powers are risking a new world war by dealing with Tito. Those responsible for Kremlin policies may feel that such an approach would carry great weight in the United States and Great Britain, which are prepared to go to any appropriate length to forestall a conflict.

Persistent reports of Cominform troop movements along the Yugoslav border—or their actual reality—could represent merely an attempt to intimidate Tito.

These reports speak of three divisions. Other inspired dispatches say that Tito has 10 divisions massed against them, a seeming indication that the Yugoslav leader is prepared for any attempt by Moscow to resolve the crisis by "direct action."

May Be Aim of Move
So there is at least some reason to believe that the Cominform might be trying to convince Washington and London that by dealing with him in the economic field, they have brought about a situation where belligerent armies face one another again.

This would be entirely in line with the devious methods of Kremlin propaganda. If it could alienate the west from Tito altogether at this moment, Moscow would have a double-barreled triumph.

It would simultaneously sabotage Yugoslavia's precarious economy and lessen the power and influence of America and England on the European continent—desperately needed by the Kremlin if it is to restore the more or less tattered mechanism of active Communism to galvanic action.

One reason for believing Stalin may be leveling his guns directly at the west is that he has been (Continued on Page Seven)

The World and the Mud Puddles

GREEK FIRE

In days of old, when gods and men lived on intimate terms, when Homer immortalized the deeds of Greece's heroes and Sappho sang paeans of praise to its lovers, there was to be found in the wild and mountainous district of Thessalia the entrance to the lower world, Tartarus. It was guarded by a fierce and sleepless three-headed dog answering to the name of Kerberos, who welcomed all comers but permitted none to pass out. Scenically the location was ideal, as far outshone the most lavish setting for the opera Faust, but for practical purposes it was found to be inadequate for the traffic. With the advance of civilization it was realized that wide should be the gate and broad the way that leadeth to destruction, preferably bordered with primroses. Accordingly the old adit was sealed off and the faithful Kerberos went to his long reward.

Leak Is Sprung
In recent years the ancient portal seems to have sprung a leak. For it is in this very locality that the hellions known as Greek guerrilla forces have been causing so much trouble. These bandits are outnumbered ten to one by the national army, but they are mountain born and bred and know how to take advantage of the favorable terrain. Their territory is the same as that in which a handful of Greeks engaged in mortal combat the famed ten thousand immortals of Xerxes, and similar to the Pass of Thermopylae where Leonidas and his three hundred Spartans withstood the whole Persian army, the sight of whose arrows darkened the sun.

Undoubtedly the rebels have been receiving aid and support from the bordering Communist states of Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria, and have been able to dodge across friendly frontiers when hard pressed. But Marshal Tito's recent rift with the Soviet Government has caused him to seal the Yugoslav line very effectively. With the troops thus released the Greeks have been able to close the gap on the Albanian border, and now for the first time (Continued on Page Seven)

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

'MIRROR WRITER' NEEDS CORRECTION

Some children when they begin to print for fun or to print or write even as late as the second or third grade, make letters or put them together in all sorts of curious ways. The most common type is mirror-writing which, as seen in a mirror, appears as correct.

As a rule, this child on beginning to read or spell proceeds from right to left instead of the proper way, from left to right. Frequently this child has been left-handed and has been urged or forced to be right-handed. When the child is properly guided at home and school such reversals can be prevented or corrected.

Proper Glasses

Visual difficulties amenable to correction by proper glasses might be overlooked or prevention of mirror-writing easier but hardly can suffice. Apparently the phenomenon is psychological rather than physiological, since psychological treatment proves to be simple and effective and almost any teacher or parent, even without technical mastery, may successfully apply corrective or preventive measures. However, a reading expert may be able to help the layman to these ends.

"Dear Dr. Myers: My son is six years old. I took him to an eye specialist who found him with astigmatism in both eyes and fitted him with glasses. Since he began in the first grade he has had the habit of writing his name backwards, as you will see by the enclosed slip of paper. The doctor called this mirror-writing but said this is not a usual case he said he would consult a medical book and inform me of the cause. Now his explanation will come to me in medical terms and I wonder if you could explain if there is a psychological answer for this type of writing and if so just what steps I should take. Joe writes with his left hand and is not encouraged otherwise."

Physical Condition

My reply in part: It's always wise to have your physician check on the physical condition of your child, including his vision, when this child shows any marked difficulty at learning. However, you will discover, by and by, no doubt, that neither glasses nor strictly medical treatment suffice in such cases. If your school has a psychologist or a reading expert this specialist might help you very much with this child. It's fine that no one has interfered with the child's handedness.

Be sure not to discuss the difficulty in the child's presence or to cause him to suppose you think it is a matter for you to be amazed at or worried about. Act nonchalantly. Just calmly help him see that his way would be hard for other children and is not the accepted way. Establish such a relation toward him as to make him want to print or write in the approved way. Win him to choose to print or write only when you or another person will be immediately present to show him the correct way to print or write a letter or word. We hope his teacher will proceed in like fashion. In other words, he should be so guided as never to practice in the wrong way but always in the right way.

Often read to your son. As you do so, run your finger under the words so he sees that you read from left to right. Wonderful if you can have him copy for fun words on a newspaper, as it always reads from left to right. Don't expect this child to change his ways all at once. Time and patience will win. My bulletin, "Home Helps for Poor Readers" may be had in a stamped envelope sent me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

Just Folks

TAKEN FOR GRANTED

Too much for granted oft we take. The simple pleasures, day by day.

We value lightly 'til we wake. To find they've all been swept away.

When time may many joys repeat. We look on them as commonplace.

But when alone we walk the street. We long for a familiar face.

The laughter that no more is heard. To hear once more we'd give our all.

And every flower and singing bird. The one who loved them will recall.

We take for granted, day by day. The smiles of welcome that we see.

But, oh, what precious joys are they. Remembered, but no more to be.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Amateur ball players from New Castle will make the trip to Louisville . . . in fact they will leave Thursday morning at about dawn or shortly before . . . by motor bus. The big All-Star game of Monday evening, the real bubbling of the financial balloon . . . by Tuesday evening with everyone who is interested in baseball giving a hand . . . about $700 dollars was in the treasurer's hands . . . That being A. Wesley Mann Jr.

Since the time that we first mentioned this trip . . . several weeks ago . . . a few people have made it their business to see to it that they were not left out. The idea that came in to this office . . . and with the crowd that gathered at Flaherty Field Monday evening and interested members of County Commissioners and City Council the needed amount was all collected yesterday.

There were some people who actually refused to help this cause . . . Why? Oh, they probably have reasons but the opportunity to give the young ball players of this community the chance to enter the big time stuff . . . was too big to let the little minds of some people stop the idea.

But the trip to Louisville is on the fire . . . we only hope that everything goes as planned . . . The trip will surely be something to be remembered by all who make it . . . the sportsmanship that these lads have displayed this summer on the home diamonds will do much for the south . . . It will be known throughout the eastern section of the United States that there is such a place as New Castle and that it's a mighty fine town. Good luck to all who are on the roster to make the trip tomorrow morning . . . let us hear from you.

Thanks to the many people who dug down in their jeans and gave . . . in order that this trip to Louisville for the baseball play-off was possible.

British Labor Cabinet Split?

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—American officials who have recently visited London bring back word of a split in the Labor cabinet.

It is a split over the timing of an election that will test the popularity of the Labor party's wide-ranging welfare measures. One group that is said to be headed by Herbert Morrison wanted an election this summer. The argument was for an immediate showdown with the conservatives who have been blasting at the socialist government, with Winston Churchill leading the attack. The alternative is to wait until the present parliament has run its legally constituted course, which would put the election on the calendar for next summer.

Defeat Preferable
The showdown now facing argues that even a defeat is preferable to trying to cope with the present crisis. Let the Tories come in, so the argument goes, and they will have to administer the bitter pill of cutting down the British standard of living. Under those circumstances a conservative government would not have a long lease on life.

But another, apparently, the dominant group is for going on to the end of the five-year term. To throw in the sponge now would be cowardly evasion, they do not trust the conservatives in power. The report does, however, point to the political dilemma of the current money crisis. On both sides of the Atlantic, the officials and experts who will try to work out at least a temporary solution must constantly be aware of the short political leash on which they will be restrained.

Time Has Come
The ancient fable about the mice who decided the time had come to put a warning bell on the cat that was decimating their numbers expresses the political problem in Britain. The British people must be told that they are living beyond their means and that the betterment in the lot of some of the population has been largely thanks to a set of complicated government controls. Those controls have suppressed and concealed, but not eradicated the post-war inflation.

But who is to carry out this grim task? For a generation and more the rank and file of British Laborites have been conditioned to believe that the coming of socialism would bring a host of benefits.

The harried managers of Britain's finance system speak vituperatively of their favorite candidate in the Labor party for the unwelcome job of telling the cat that is Aneurin Bevan, minister of health. Bevan, the Welsh coal miner who has the charm and the flair and the emotional appeal of Lloyd George in his palmiest days, is the recognized leader of the left wing of the Labor party. Bevan could never be suspected of the kind of "sellout" that the late Ramsay MacDonald was always suspected of by his Labor colleagues.

But whether the ardent Bevan would be willing to lead his party down the path of sobering and austere responsibility in the face of the desperate need of the moment, no one ventures to say. Such a move would go counter to everything that Bevan has proclaimed through his long and often stormy career.

Here at home, Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder, head of the American delegation, and Secretary of State Dean Acheson will be acutely conscious of Congress and the wide hostility to the Labor government exhibited in a section of the American press. It can be stated flatly that their is no intention to ask Congress for any further powers to meet the emergency. This may well be because it is pretty obvious that an impatient and weary Congress would be most unlikely to grant any additional power of authorization.

Stand Made Clear
Acheson has on many occasions made his stand clear. The rock of his conviction is that co-operation with the United Kingdom and the British Commonwealth is imperative to the security of the United States. As a consequence the secretary has been the target of a resurgent isolationism that propagandists against any more agreements with the hated British.

But how to carry out this co-operation, in view of Britain's dire plight, is something else again. Any proposal that the British experts feel is on a scale sufficient to correct the unbalance draining off London's reserves would have to be referred to Congress for approval. So what the men on both sides of the conference table are likely to come back to is a temporary truce that will carry Britain through the months immediately ahead.

Then the business of facing up to reality, political and economic, will have to begin in earnest. That is a process bound to cause pain and anguish. And the longer it is postponed, the more painful it will be.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

(By International News Service)

Two new boons to mankind are the remote-controlled lawnmower and the concrete guitar.

The Massachusetts map who invented the concrete guitar had nothing special in mind for it, he just liked to dabble in concrete, but it would be a handy thing to have at a Paul Robeson concert.

With a couple of musicians equipped with concrete guitars, six or seven with iron flutes and one man with a bronze bass fiddle Mr. Robeson would have not only an orchestra but a task force.

Tracing back what happened in Westchester it appears that Mr. Robeson may have been mistaken for a Democrat in high-test Republican territory.

Anyway this electronic lawnmower is a real gift to us all . . . A fellow can mow his lawn while sitting in the living room merely by moving a small lever on a small box.

And I understand that when a neighbor wants to borrow the lawnmower, moving the lever the opposite direction locks the wheels so he can't budge it . . . This is worth money.

Who Killed Cock Robin?

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 31.—Federal aid to education must now be considered a dead duck at this session of Congress, and we may get on with the post-mortem. Who gave this legislation its quietus? Did Cardinal Spellman who denounced the Barden bill as "un-American"? Did General Eisenhower who attacked the Thomas or Administration itself, by mismanagement, doom an idea which had so much Republican support in both the 80th and the 81st Congresses?

My own deductions are made after sitting in on the round-table discussions conducted by the House education and labor committee. The discussions, open to the press but closed to the public, certainly showed that the religious issue was there. Cardinal Spellman had complained that the Barden Bill discriminated against Catholic schools which were not cut in on certain auxiliary funds. This accusation caused some uneasily wrangling between Protestant and Catholic participants at the round-table. But it was a side issue, never the main issue at stake. It was an excuse, a convenient opportunity for dozens of Congressmen (including Speaker Rayburn and Minority Leader Martin, to get off the hook. A majority of Congress, entirely aside from religious feelings, simply didn't want to pass legislation which would cost $300 million a year and hand the Federal government another set of controls.

Made Two Points

Back in June Gen. Eisenhower wrote his much-discussed letter to Rep. Gwinn (R., N. Y.), expressing the same objections to Federal educational aid. General Ike, it will be remembered, made two points: (a) Federal aid would lead to more centralized control and (b) would stimulate State spending in order to compete for the Federal dollar.

As it happened, I was then in Manhattan, Kansas, working on an article about Milton Eisenhower, the General's brother, who read me a letter from Ike. The air at that time was thick with brickbats being flung at Ike by the liberal press. I may report that the General was cool, as always, under enemy fire, but a little bewildered at the common motion he'd stirred up. He wasn't, as some of the extremists charged, against children getting an education. He was just against the risk of regimentation and more loose spending.

In the 70-odd days since mid-June, the House of Representatives has come over to the Eisenhower view. But the facts ought to be kept straight. Few if any representatives are against juvenile education, any more than Eisenhower is. Almost as few are against Catholic schools. But the Administration's education legislation has to be considered against the whole background of the Tru Deal program. Education got into trouble in Congress for the same reason that Tru Deal proposals on labor, taxes, farming and the arming of Europe got into trouble.

One Real Fault

What's more, education lends itself to a great deal of emotionalism on the part of its advocates. Obviously, it is almost impossible to have too many schools, too many well-paid teachers, too many auxiliary services for school children and their voting parents. We have possibly the best educational system in the world, but it isn't perfect and never will be. Yet the one real fault of the system is not so much its insufficiency as its inequality. In certain States and counties, as everyone knows, the public schools do about all we ought to ask. In other States and counties, mostly southern, the conditions are downright disgraceful. So the job is to equalize education before we start to overhaul it.

A very good equalization bill (H. R. 5795) by Rep. Werdel (R., Cal.) lies buried in the same committee which conducted the round-table discussions. Under the Werdel bill, Federal funds would be spent on schools "which are in the greatest relative need and least able to secure adequate local or State assistance." This makes sense. Quoting further from the Werdel Bill's declaration of policy, we find that "such improvement (should) be brought about without Federal control of local education . . ."

Here, in brief, is an education bill which fits both the needs of the country and the temper of Congress. But the Administration would have none of it. We can only conclude that the Administration wanted education on its own terms or not at all. So the blame, if blame there be, lies there.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

You have all heard that old story about the fellow who hit himself on the head every day. A bystander asked him why he did that.

"Because it feels so good when I stop," was the answer.

This column will deal with the subject of Sin. You may also call it Vice, or Evil, if you prefer. As you know, the late President Coolidge said that he was against sin.

So are you. So am I. But let us imagine ourselves in a sinless world.

By the way, let me tell you how I got the idea for this column. Yesterday I took a pair of shoes to be re-heeled.

My shoemaker is an old Ukrainian, and he is also a philosopher. Bogdan (that's his first name) never read a book on philosophy in all his life.

I don't even know whether he knows how to read. But Bogdan's store is on the main street and he sees hundreds of people pass by, and many come in.

In between fixing shoes, Bogdan has a lot of time to see, to listen, to observe and to think.

To use a paradox, Bogdan thinks with both feet on the ground. Bogdan also likes to talk.

Quite often I go to Bogdan's little shop and swap observations with him. I think his are better than mine. He is also more simple. His life is much less complicated.

Yesterday he told me about seeing a kid arrested for crossing the street against the traffic light. "The cop shouldn't have done it," he said. "Kids shouldn't be arrested for little things like that. They should be told not only what but also why."

Then Bogdan made the general observation that there is altogether too much ado about the little sins people commit.

"We have a proverb in the Ukraine," he said, "which goes 'No sin; no salvation.'"

I thought of Bogdan as I read my paper last evening. Lots of arrests. Lots of investigations.

Arms-For-Europe Compromise Bill Will Be Submitted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—(INS)—An arms-for-Europe compromise entailing a reported cut of $160,990,000 will be submitted today to Senate committees fighting over the administration's program for halting Communist aggression.

The compromise is said to embrace the original Vandenberg-Dulles amendment to cut arms-aid funds for North Atlantic countries from the $1,160,990,000 asked by President Truman to an even one billion dollars.

Backed by Senate Republican foreign policy leaders Vandenberg, Mich., and Dulles, N. Y., the agreement now goes before the combined Senate foreign relations and armed services committees.

If approved by them, it will mean that the administration's arms-sharing program will reach the Senate floor with strong bipartisan backing. Up to now, Vandenberg has been critical of the European phase of the legislation.

Soviet Airman Who Deserted, Goes Back Home

VIENNA, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Soviet Airman Anatol P. Barsov, who deserted to the United States and then decided to return to his homeland, was delivered to Russian officials in Austria today.

The 32-year-old Red Air Force lieutenant's fantastic odyssey ended at 7 a. m. (1 A.M. EDT) when U. S. authorities handed him over to the Soviets at Urfahr, on the American-Soviet zonal boundary.

The U. S. state department—which hinted that Barsov's change of heart may have been motivated by his wife and child still in Russia—had given him the option of going to the USSR or staying in Europe under American jurisdiction.

Barsov, with another Russian airman, Peter Pirogov, 25, crashed in the U. S. zone of Austria last fall. Both men said they wanted to become American citizens.

An American spokesman said that Barsov's repatriation "probably means changes in our intelligence set-up." He explained that the Russian flyer is now fully familiar with U. S. screening and interrogation techniques and will relay these to the Soviets. Barsov is also familiar with what U. S. intelligence wants to know most about Russia.

REV. J. C. KURTZ WILL SPEAK HERE

Rev. J. C. Kurtz, of Universal, will speak Saturday evening, September 3, at 7:30 o'clock in the Bible Mission, located on the Youngstown hill. He has chosen "The Principles of Early Methodism" as his theme.

Rev. Kurtz has made a special study of Methodism in England. The speaker owns a number of original books on "Methodism."

SEEK NOAH'S ARK ON MT. ARARAT

SEEKING THE REMAINS of the Ark in which Noah and the animals survived the deluge, these Americans, shown in Istanbul, have begun climbing 16,000-foot Mount Ararat. Shown (l. to r.) are: Wendall Ogg, health officer; Walter L. Wood, engineer; Dr. A. J. Smith, archeologist and expedition leader, and E. J. Newton, photographer. Moscow protested the men were engaged in spying on adjoining Russia. (International)

"Assignment; America"

By INEZ ROBB

(Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
(Distributed By International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The cloistered existence I lead as a newspaper reporter is now and has been for years a source of continuing amazement to me. The things that go on in this country! Until I sashayed down to Charleston, W. Va., to see a North-South high school football game, I never dreamed that baton twirling and derriere wagging had become indispensable components of the great autumn madness.

But the twirling and the wagging in these latter days have quite run away with the game. For while it took only the standard 22 minutes to play the game, it required the unremitting efforts of 75 (count 'em) drum majorettes and a drum major, especially imported for the occasion, to get it started and keep it going.

Mixed with Vaudeville

Apparently, I am just discovering that football today is inextricably mixed up with vaudeville, if not burlesque. Naturally, in recent years I have been unable to avoid being terrorized by the sight of drum majorettes in newswires and in picture magazines.

But the sight of 75 drum majorettes in the flesh and all in a minimum of clothing, all swinging batons and wagging in time to a band, has chilled me more than any sight I have seen in years.

More Fertile Field

Some churches have already put their collective feet down about bathing beauty contests. For my money, they can find an even more fertile field for missionary work among drum majorettes, a group whose collective clothing wouldn't suffice to flag a bread wagon.

My eyes were opened to the vast extent of this baton madness by Don Poynter, 24, of Cincinnati, the twirling champ imported to give an exhibition of drum majoring and its allied arts at the North-South game.

Schools in baton twirling are in operation all over the United States, said Mr. Poynter, who is now in New York peddling a book, "Two Baton Twirling," he has written as a text for students.

He gets $3 per hour for private lessons and $1.50 per hour for class work. At the moment, he has a hundred pupils.

A small, compact young man with curly brown hair and bright brown eyes, he has been a baton expert ever since he gave the stick its first whirl when he was fifteen. He was Ohio state champ in 1943, before the army claimed him, and second in a recent Chicago Music-land festival.

Gives Away Secret

Mr. Poynter, who was just graduated from the University of Cincinnati last June, is now the old master who can twirl three flaming batons at once or chill the blood by doing his baton tricks with a machete.

The candy kid with the baton, he can twirl 'em on a tight wire, a unicycle or stilts.

But Mr. Poynter is a smart young man. He sees no future in baton-twirling for a college grad. Right now he is in New York to sell his book and find outlets for the toy log cabin he is already manufacturing in Cincinnati.

When I asked Mr. Poynter why drum majors always wore the fancy kit associated with lion tamer's uniforms and why drum majorettes wear only as much as they can get by with, he had a ready answer. He said:

"Their legs are prettier," and then he lowered his voice and added: "and besides, girls are just natural show-offs."

Green Pasture

Winners Named

HARRISBURG, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Theodore B. Pepper, of Springboro, Crawford County, today was named the 1949 winner of the Pennsylvania green pasture contest.

Pepper's champion pasture land consisted of 58 acres which he built to rich "grass land farming" in four years after he abandoned rotation farming, according to John A. Smith, Secretary of the Pennsylvania Production and Marketing Administration, which conducted the contest.

Runner-up for the 1949 prize was Russell F. Carter, of Yardley, who finished third last year. Third place went to Marion Louden of Tyrone, while fourth prize was won by the Hilliard brothers, of Sugar Loaf, Luzerne County.

Olive Miller

Injured In Fall

Miss Olive Miller, 82, 410 Epworth street, was injured Tuesday evening about 8:20 o'clock, when the back chains of a porch swing gave way, and caused her to topple backwards off of the swing.

She was taken to the New Castle hospital, where X-ray pictures are being taken. Miss Miller received neck and back injuries. Her condition is fair.

Murder Trial Gets Under Way At Brookville

BROOKVILLE, Pa., Aug. 31.—(INS)—Selection of a jury was completed today in the murder trial of a man whose wife's death more than two years ago was listed as a suicide until last February.

The defendant is Ray Timblin, 41, of Rossiter, Pa., accused of shooting his second wife, Laverta, 37.

Among the spectators in the courtroom was Timblin's present wife, Frances, 31, the mother of nine-year-old twin girls.

Witnesses summoned to testify for the prosecution include five Pennsylvania state policemen, all experts in scientific criminal detection.

Four are from the state crime laboratory in Harrisburg, and one is a ballistics expert from the Butler troop.

Judge Jesse C. Long ordered the jury of seven men and five women locked up in the American hotel in Brookville each night for the duration of the trial.

Charles J. Margiotti, widely known Pittsburgh attorney, is heading the defense.

First Grid Injury Of Year Reported

Charles Airgood, aged 13, of R. D. 1, Pulaski, is the first football casualty of the season reported here.

While playing football at New Bedford Tuesday afternoon, the youth was thrown heavily, suffering a fracture of the left thigh. He was admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital for treatment at 4 p.m.

Forty-Two Pass Test For Drivers License At Armory Tuesday

Fifty-One Other Candidates Fail To Win Privilege Of Driving Automobiles

Forty-two passed and 51 other applicants for a motor vehicle operators privilege failed yesterday when State police conducted examinations at the Armory course. The detail which examined the applicants consisted of four State policemen from the Butler barracks, and they were kept busy from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Too many applicants are failing the test. State police advise more experience behind the wheel before attempting to take the examination.

The following were successful, and are now fully licensed operators:

victory for the nationalist forces seems assured.

Strategically Important

Commercially, Greece is of little consequence, but strategically it is of prime importance, as it forms a barrier between the Communist Balkan States and the Mediterranean, and with its dependency Crete, commands the approaches to both the Dardanelles and the Suez Canal. Economically, it is and always has been poor in natural resources and low in fertility, but its cultural achievements have no equal, and well has it been called the mother of arts and eloquence.

It is almost inconceivable that from such an unpromising source there could arise a culture that has pervaded all the activity and accomplishment of every civilized nation. Since long before the beginning of the Christian era, Greece has been under foreign domination, and most of it, under Rome and Turkey, of the most oppressive nature. After the expulsion of the Turks the country was ruled by German and Danish kings placed on the throne by the Great Powers, and it was not until 1944 that a real Hellenic government was established. Even since that time, there has been internal strife and Communist insurrection, and only in the past few weeks has the hope of a stable independent administration been justified.

Overcome as a nation by force of arms, Greek culture did not die, but deprived of national ex-

Mickey Cohen Is Taken By Police

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Los Angeles Gang Czar Mickey Cohen was arrested last night at his lavish Brentwood home and charged with disturbing the peace. Cohen posted bail of $100 and was released pending an hearing today.

Arresting officers said he offered no resistance when they bundled him into a patrol car and hustled him off to jail.

Cohen was taken into custody by members of the police intelligence unit who said Cohen's verbal attack on a member of the intelligence unit and a Federal narcotics officer led to the arrest.

The warrant on which the arrest was made was based on Cohen's outburst against Officer James E. Barwick and Narcotics Agent Oscar Poluch after they arrested Mickey's No. 1 henchman, Mike Howard.

IN VIEW OF NEWS

at the western allies is the publicity given the Cominform meeting in Sofia.

Mantled in Secrecy

These increasingly frequent sessions always have been mantled in greatest secrecy and only guesswork has followed in their train.

In the case of the latest session, however, the official Soviet news agency Tass lost no time in broadcasting news of it. The Bulgarian government in Sofia then came along with a communiqué.

And always the stress was on that sinister phrase "taken certain decision."

The Vatican and other sources warn against erroneous belief that the Stalin-Tito break means a real fissure in the real foundations of Communism—atheism and strangulation of personal liberties.

Historians may argue someday whether this entire crisis may have been a put-up job to delude the world. Certainly the annals of European diplomacy and politics contain many examples of incredible duplicity.

But it is highly unlikely that the Allies will be dissuaded from any open, above-board business deals with Yugoslavia either by threats or propaganda.

The situation therefore will work itself out in some uneasy truce or a clash of strength that would have enormous and forbidding possibilities. Few persons if any are competent to predict the outcome at the present time.

UNIONS IN BATTLE

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., Aug. 31.—(INS)—A decisive battle for power at the Aluminum Company of America plant in New Kensington was in the advanced stage today between the AFL and CIO.

Within 30 days about 4,000 employees will vote to decide whether the AFL or the CIO will represent them.

In Washington yesterday, the National Labor Relations Board threw out a contract which the CIO United Steelworkers had negotiated with the company and ordered the election. The CIO contract would have expired May 31, 1950.

Political Purges Being Planned By President

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—(INS)—President Truman and Democratic party leaders will wage an all-out campaign next year to defeat members of Congress who have torpedoed the Truman program at the present session.

Recalcitrant Democrats who have consistently refused to follow the party platform, as well as Republicans, will be targets for political purges.

Strategy for the critical congressional by-election campaign—still a year off but already under way—has been worked out in a series of "secret conferences."

The campaign will be waged with all the vigor and intensity of the 1948 presidential election, with the Truman 21-point program, largely ignored by the Democratic majority in Congress as a basis.

But labor's 15 million votes and the nation's huge farm vote, both of which proved the keys to Democratic victories last year, will be the main battleground.

Democratic party strategists figure these two sectors of the total vote can be just as potent in the congressional election as they were a year ago.

Lawrence Caravan To Have Corn Roast

Plans have been completed by Lawrence Caravan No. 15 of Syria Shrine for a stag corn and wiener roast, which will take place Friday evening, Sept. 8, at Rambler's Rest, on route 108, east of Harlansburg.

President Paul M. Pattison has named the following committees for the event:

Food, Earl C. Moffatt, chairman, C. R. Carroll, Arthur Lowry, Herman A. Braatz, William A. Jenkins, Sr., and N. Earl Kocher, entertainment, Joseph E. McGuffie, chairman, James E. Peacock, Robert W. Cole, Arthur O. Dunn and W. J. Probst.

A fine evening of entertainment is being arranged for the members.

The fig tree will produce two crops in one season in climates congenial to its growth.

Folks Of Fame

This "boy wonder" of billiards, Willie Hoppe, was a champion at 16. Born October 11, 1887, in Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., he began to play billiards almost before he could talk. Reason: His father owned a hotel in which there was a one-table poolroom. Standing on a box, the kid at the age of six, defeated all his father's regular poolroom customers. In 1906, when only 18, he won his first world's championship, defeating France's great Maurice Vignaux for the 18.1 balkline billiards title. Since, he has won the 18.2 world title so many times that his is permanently the greatest name in billiards history.

One of the tennis greats of the 1920s, Vincent Richards, was born March 20, 1903, in New York City. At 14 he won the national boys' outdoor singles championship. Among the many titles he has won were national indoor doubles (five times), indoor singles (three), doubles (five), mixed doubles (once), clay courts doubles (once). He also won the 1924 Olympic singles and doubles, and starred on five Davis cup teams. The one title that always eluded him was the most coveted—the national singles. In 1947 he became commissioner of professional tennis.

Catholic Veterans To Be In Parade

New Castle Catholic Veterans will participate in the county centennial parade, which is to take place Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Veterans are to meet at the parade's starting point, at the Legion Home. Commander Edward DeCarbo announced that the joint picnic with the auxiliary and regular membership will be held Sunday, Sept. 11, at El Rio Beach.

The regular meeting of the Veterans scheduled for September 5 has been changed to September 6, due to a holiday. They will meet in the K. of C. hall, 349½ East Washington street.

CARRIES BUSINESS TOO FAR
WASHINGTON, 31.—(INS)—Watch salesmen . . . a F. Owens knows today that one can carry his business to the customers too far.

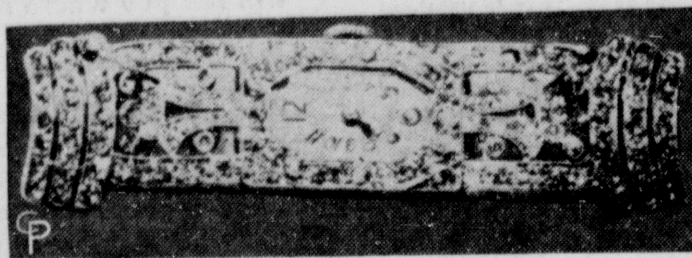

To stimulate sales he took a case of watches from his store to a street corner and awaited orders.

He didn't wait long. A youth passing by grabbed the case and made off through an alley, escaping despite Owen's pursuit.

AID IN SEARCH FOR LOST WIDOW

Mrs. Boomhower's pawned $1,000 watch, unredeemed in Bel-Air shop.

DISAPPEARANCE of Mrs. Mimi Boomhower, wealthy Bel-Air, Cal., widow, spurs acquaintances and relatives to aid police with all possible information on widow's habits as her sister, Mrs. Olga Herman, arrives from New York. Belief that Mrs. Boomhower was victim of confidence man preying on wealthy widows is offered by Mrs. Elise Woods. Mrs. Boomhower reportedly pawned valuable watch with promise to redeem it within few days, but never returned for it.

Seventh Ward

Charles McKinney To Supply Pulpit

New Castle Youth Will Minister
At Mahoningtown Presbyterian
Church September 4, 11

Announcement was made this morning, by Ernest O. Farver, of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, that Rev. Charles W. McKinney of New Castle will supply the pulpit of that church on Sunday morning, September 4 and likewise, Sunday, September 11.

Rev. McKinney, a graduate of the Union township schools, is well known in this district. He graduated from the Practical Training Bible school in Binghamton, N. Y., and did special work at Bob Jones, University in Greenville, South Carolina. He has also been active in evangelistic and youth for Christ work.

The pulpit of the Presbyterian church has been vacant since the resignation of Rev. Howard Redmond who resigned to return to his native state of California. Candidates for the church are to be heard in the near future.

Rev. McKinney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer McKinney of King avenue.

Benny DeProspero Home From Japan

After an absence of three years, Benny DeProspero son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick DeProspero, 309 West Wabash avenue, has returned to his home in the ward. Benny spent 29 months of the three year period in Japan with the Eleventh Airborne Division.

Before embarking for Japan, the Seventh Ward youth received vital training at Camp Campbell in Texas where he was stationed about seven months before leaving for overseas duty. Benny, who said he was more than glad to get back home is back in civilian duties and has resumed work at the Seventh ward Isaly store.

Frances Billyk Attends School

Miss Frances Billyk, 1034 North Liberty street, local dance instructor has just returned to her home from New York City where she was receiving the latest training in modern dancing and ballet.

Miss Billyk, attended the Ballet Arts Studio in Carnegie Hall where she underwent intensive training in the dancing art. During her stay, she visited several places of interest in New York.

Conducts Service At West Middlesex

Rev. John L. Petrie, pastor of the Mahoning Methodist church was in West Middlesex, Tuesday afternoon, conducting funeral services for the late Mrs. Arthur Barlow, which were conducted from the Cunningham funeral home there. Mrs. Barlow, former resident here, and of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., died in the Jameson hospital on Saturday. Burial took place in Hillcrest Memorial Park, Sharon.

Rev. Petrie is busily engaged this week in closing out the books of the church and preparing various reports for the coming sessions of Erie conference which will take place September 7 to 11 at Meadville.

Board of Education of the church met on Monday evening in the church, with General Superintendent Lawrence C. Godwin in charge. An excellent treasurer's report was submitted by Ruth Ann Daniels. Discussion of the general work of the church took place with plans for the Fall and Winter being made as well as rally day on September 25. The meetings in the future are to be bi-monthly, it was announced.

Postpone Butler Schools Opening Until Sept. 12

Action Taken Due To Prevalence
Of Polio Cases In Butler
Area

BUTLER, Aug. 31.—Butler city and township schools will postpone their opening one week, until September 12, as part of a strict anti-polio program recommended by the Butler board of health.

Members of the Butler board of health, school officials, Butler P. T. A. representatives, clergymen, members of Butler Medical society and representatives of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis met Tuesday to make a complete survey of the Butler situation.

Main point in closing the schools, according to Al Lehnerd, state health officer, is to prevent children from riding in the close confines of the school buses.

Many Butler county pupils ride a long distance in their daily school attendance, and close body contact is a definite polio menace, according to health authorities.

Numerous other restrictions were also decreed.

The name of the great French poet and dramatist, Voltaire, was originally Francois Marie Arouet. The state of Minnesota is farther north than any other state in the union.

Keep On Fighting One Polio Victim Says To Another

"Boiler Kid" Sends Fighting Message To 21-Year Old Youth Stricken At Sea

MINOCQUA, Wis., Aug. 31. — (INS)—Fred Snite, Jr., the "boiler kid" stricken with polio more than 13 years ago, has sent a fighting message via International News Service to a 21-year-old youth attacked by infantile paralysis on the high seas last week.

Snite, writing an exclusive article for INS, told Sidney C. Moody, the young polio victim, "Never to stop fighting and praying."

Moody figured in a dramatic race against death when a coast guard cutter sped to meet the liner "Parthia" in the Atlantic last Thursday with an iron lung aboard. Moody now is battling the crippling disease in a New York hospital, a few miles from his Plainfield, N. J., home.

Snite said he knew how young Moody must be feeling from first hand experience, but added, that the youth must never give up.

Confusing at First
Snite went on to say:
"I know things are very confusing at the outset, and that the initial period of readjustment is tough."

"It takes time to realize that it can happen to you. But concentrate on getting well. That too can happen to you."

Snite pointed out that despite the fact he had been living in an iron lung since polio hit in Pekin, China, he has led a normal, healthy and happy life. He is married and the father of three daughters. And unless the weather is very bad, he never misses a football game played at South Bend, Ind., by his school, Notre Dame's Fighting Irish.

Snite concluded his message to Moody:
"I'm not missing anything... in some ways this illness is a blessing in disguise... again, I say, never lose faith in God."

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Infant "Dropsy"

"I guess he's just got the dropsy" is the way some people explain a young child's delight in dropping toys, spoons, or other articles from his play pen or high chair.

At first, it's likely to be amusing. Mother, father, or brothers and sisters enjoy picking things up and handing them back. After a bit, however, the trick may become tiresome. Sometimes the baby is scolded and made to feel that he is "bad." Mother or father feel he should be trained not to continue the constant dropping.

Apparently young babies get a "kick" out of seeing things disappear. To have objects picked up is especially thrilling and they're ready to "go through the act" all over again.

There are several ways of dealing with the situation. Now and again the grown-up may enjoy the game of dropping and picking up. There's no harm either in ignoring the behavior at times. The youngster will learn that he can't always expect things returned. A compromise measure is to tie strings to the objects he likes to drop. Before long he will learn how to retrieve them. In any case there is no point in making a "moral issue" of "dropsy." It's a perfectly natural sort of behavior.

Bees Make Life Unhappy For Water Tower Inspectors

HARRISBURG—Bees of many varieties, hornets and wasps have chosen the Department of Forests and Waters fire towers for their summer homes, according to officials of that department.

The bees seemed to have had the uncanny ability of remaining unnoticed until departmental inspectors in charge of repairing the towers climbed to the top. Then they made their attacks from below, cornering their victims in the cabins atop the structures.

Inspectors have been seen escaping from various tower cabins, covered for protection with everything from map cover to pieces of carpet that had been used for floor covering.

Insect sprays and burning of nests was proved ineffective. More bees gathered to help repair the damage.

In one instance every attempt to dislodge some hornets failed, and a truce was declared while one man went to work painting the inside of the cabin tower.

The truce held with the hornets continuing their buzzing, until a troop of boy scouts came to visit the tower. Things remained peaceful until one of the scouts decided to split the hornets' nest from top to bottom with his rice little scout knife. All concerned beat a hasty retreat.

Lion Committees Present Reports

Continued Assistance Given Sightless And Those Needing Glasses

Various standing committees of New Castle Lions club gave a report on their activities in recent months at the business meeting held Tuesday noon in The Castle-ton, following the weekly luncheon.

Reports of the various committees were most interesting, showing that the purposes of the club are being realized.

Stressing aid to the sightless, the report of Chairman Charles Lumley revealed a considerable amount of assistance is being rendered by this department. Ten pairs of glasses were furnished during the past few weeks and one sightless resident of the county was placed in the state school for the blind through the interest of the club.

Paul G. Dingley and Rev. Fr. Ralph E. Hovencamp were named on the program coordinating committee.

Guests included Kenneth L. Craft, Timblin, Pa.; Dr. Kenneth W. Moore, Trenton, N. J.; Dr. Glenn W. Anderson, San Francisco, and Charles Emmerling, Pittsburgh.

The club members contributed the sum of $42.50 to the fund being raised to send the Legion Junior baseball team to Louisville, Ky., for the amateur tournament being staged there.

Texas has about 300,000 acres of state parks.

Beauty Of Spanish Women Amazing To U.S. Beauty Queen

MADRID, Aug. 31. — (INS)—Bebe Shopp—like almost any other 18-year-old girl—thinks traveling is exciting, but she'll be "glad to get back home."

The reigning Miss America, now nearing the end of a European tour, said in Madrid Tuesday that she thinks Spain boasts some of the most beautiful women in the world.

"I am simply amazed at the natural beauty of the Spanish women," she said. "A great many possess striking features and beautiful eyes, teeth, and fine complexions with soft lustrous hair. They would undoubtedly make a great hit with American artists."

She gave an emphatic "No" answer to newsmen who asked her if she planned to include the waltz on her fall concert tour.

Then she added:
"I don't care if I ever hear it again. They played it at every single stop we made during the presidential campaign of 1948."

Miss Truman was in St. Louis briefly en route from a ten-day vacation in Independence, Mo., to New York. There she will complete preparations for her singing tour.

MISSOURI WALTZ Not For Margaret

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 31. — (INS)—President Truman's daughter, Margaret, doesn't care if she never hears the "Missouri Waltz" again. The song is the reported favorite of her father and the official Missouri state song.

The 25-year-old blonde daughter of the president confessed Tuesday that the song left her cold.

ICE CREAM OUTPUT
HARRISBURG. — Pennsylvania ice cream manufacturers maintained their leadership among all states during the month of July when they turned out more than eight million gallons, the State department of Agriculture reports following federal-state surveys. The output of 8,090,000 gallons compares with 7,870,000 in June and 7,900,000 in July, 1948.

RELIEF INCREASE LAGS
HARRISBURG. — During the second week of August, Pennsylvania's General Assistance rolls increased by 1,499 persons, which represents some improvement over the change during the first week of the month, when the net increase amounted to 1,706. The number of persons now receiving general assistance totals 74,365.

Beauty Of Spanish Women Amazing To U.S. Beauty Queen

MADRID, Aug. 31. — (INS)—Bebe Shopp—like almost any other 18-year-old girl—thinks traveling is exciting, but she'll be "glad to get back home."

The reigning Miss America, now nearing the end of a European tour, said in Madrid Tuesday that she thinks Spain boasts some of the most beautiful women in the world.

"I am simply amazed at the natural beauty of the Spanish women," she said. "A great many possess striking features and beautiful eyes, teeth, and fine complexions with soft lustrous hair. They would undoubtedly make a great hit with American artists."

She gave an emphatic "No" answer to newsmen who asked her if she planned to include the waltz on her fall concert tour.

Then she added:
"I don't care if I ever hear it again. They played it at every single stop we made during the presidential campaign of 1948."

Miss Truman was in St. Louis briefly en route from a ten-day vacation in Independence, Mo., to New York. There she will complete preparations for her singing tour.

MISSOURI WALTZ Not For Margaret

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 31. — (INS)—President Truman's daughter, Margaret, doesn't care if she never hears the "Missouri Waltz" again. The song is the reported favorite of her father and the official Missouri state song.

The 25-year-old blonde daughter of the president confessed Tuesday that the song left her cold.

ICE CREAM OUTPUT
HARRISBURG. — Pennsylvania ice cream manufacturers maintained their leadership among all states during the month of July when they turned out more than eight million gallons, the State department of Agriculture reports following federal-state surveys. The output of 8,090,000 gallons compares with 7,870,000 in June and 7,900,000 in July, 1948.

RELIEF INCREASE LAGS
HARRISBURG. — During the second week of August, Pennsylvania's General Assistance rolls increased by 1,499 persons, which represents some improvement over the change during the first week of the month, when the net increase amounted to 1,706. The number of persons now receiving general assistance totals 74,365.

Canton Battle Is Developing

CANTON, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Chinese Nationalists' commanders admitted today that the showdown battle with the Communists for Canton is already developing in South Hunan province.

(Reports reaching Hong Kong said that the Communists sweeping south from Hunan are threatening to cut off Canton from the main Nationalist armies. The Red forces were expected to reach the rail line linking the provisional capital with its troops "within a few hours.")

Newspapers in the Nationalist capital said that opposing forces are now massing along the Kwangtung-Hunan border 200 miles north of Canton. Canton lies in south-central Kwangtung province.

Four Communist armies under Gen. Lin Piao were reported in East Hunan province, ready to move southward, while other Red units under Gen. Liu Po-Cheng, "the one-eyed dragon," were said to be moving from Kiangsi province to join Lin.

Gen. Wu Te-Chen, former foreign minister, predicted several "major battles" before the fate of Canton is decided. Other government military leaders claimed that the terrain north of Canton favors defending troops.

Communist units which were earlier reported stalled on the west side of the Canton-Hankow railway, have now apparently swung in a wide arc to the east, from where they will launch their drive to the south.

Bail Is Allowed In Murder Case

HARRISBURG, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Clifford Dove, charged with the shotgun murder of his wife in their Hummelstown home, today was admitted to bail in an unusual action in the Dauphin County court.

Court attaches said that letting a man charged with murder out on bail was "very unusual."

Dove is charged with fatally shooting his wife Midnight August 9 in the lower abdomen.

The bail plea petition said the evidence against Dove, brought out at hearings before Alderman John L. Madden, was not enough to support a murder charge. It also stated the long list of cases already scheduled for the September court term will prohibit a trial at that time for Dove.

Dist. Atty. Carl B. Shelley agreed with the motion to put Dove on $5,000 bail.

STOP NEXT WAR

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—(INS)—The American Legion today endorsed a U.S. foreign policy "which relentlessly defends the American ideals of liberty and independence" for which two world wars were fought.

By voice vote, the Legion's national convention pledged support for "a positive program to stop the next war before it starts."

Polish Consul In Chicago Resigns Post Defiantly

Refuses To Obey Order To Return To Communist Dominated Homeland

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—(INS)—The Polish consul-general in Chicago announced his resignation today in defiance of an order to return to his Communist-dominated homeland.

The official, Marion Bogdan Ciapka, 56, said he has broken off connections with the Polish government, and is seeking political asylum in the United States.

Ciapka, a non-Communist who has held the consul-generalship in Chicago since Sept. 20, 1947, said he was notified by his government sometime ago to proceed to Warsaw.

Officials at the Polish consulate said Ciapka also has vacated the consular residence and is living with friends at an undisclosed address in Chicago.

Estranged Husband Is Held In Shooting Of Wife, Companion

YORK, Pa., Aug. 31.—(INS)—Police today questioned John W. James, 51, accused of shooting his estranged wife and her male companion near Muddy Creeks Fork 25 miles south of York.

Victims of the shooting, which occurred near James' former rural York county home, were Mrs. Bertha James, 47, and Celess Christian, 49. They were taken to York General hospital suffering gunshot wounds but the condition of neither was considered serious yesterday.

James was nabbed by a radio-equipped posse including State troopers after a three hour search. He surrendered quietly when run to earth about seven miles from the scene of the shooting.

District Attorney H. B. Rudisill withheld a charge pending interrogation of Mrs. James and Christian.

Seek To Avert Blue Ridge Bus Drivers Strike

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Federal mediators worked today to avert a strike of Blue Ridge Bus Line drivers scheduled for 1 a. m. tomorrow.

Representatives of the company and Division 1063 of the AFL Amalgamated Street & Electric Railway Employees, were in session with mediators in Pittsburgh, trying to agree on a contract to replace the one which expired May 1.

The union's demand for a raise of 25 cents "across the board" was the primary issue.

Three hundred drivers and mechanics have voted to strike if no settlement is reached by 1 a. m. tomorrow.

The walkout would halt bus service between Pittsburgh, Bridgeville, Steubenville, Clarksburg, Wheeling, Washington, Pa., New Kensington and Indiana, Pa.

Ten 'Best-Tailored' Women Are Named

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(INS)—The "ten best-tailored women in America"—or ladies most suited to suits—were named today by the National Custom Tailors Guild.

Laraine Day, Mrs. Lauritz Melchior, Ilka Chase and Mrs. Georgia Neese Clark were among those adjudged simultaneously beautiful and businesslike.

The guild named Mrs. Clark, treasurer of the U.S., as the top-tailored woman in public life; Audrey "Didi" Keon, in society; Ilka Chase, literature; Margaret Phelan, music; Laraine Day, screen.

Candy Jones (Mrs. Harry Conover) won in the field of business; Ailyn McLeerie of "Miss Liberty," the stage; Kathi Norris, television; Mrs. Lauritz Melchior, management; and Ethel Thorsen, designing.

State Will Widen Traffic Route 488 At Ellwood City

HARRISBURG, Aug. 31.—(INS)—New Castle Duntle company has been awarded the contract for the widening of 2.39 miles of traffic route 488 in Wayne and Perry townships, Ellwood City and Ellport borough, in Lawrence county, at their low bid of $107,323.

Alfred Martin, Lawrence county highway superintendent, reports that the stretch of road involves the Ellwood City-Portersville road, running from Ellwood City north-east through Wurtemburg to the concrete bridge at Wurtemburg. The present road is 16 feet wide, and the completed work will leave a 22-foot road for traffic.

The widening is to be done immediately, with three feet on either side of the road, while in some instances the additional six feet will be placed on one side, particularly on the curves and dangerous hills.

Ten-Month-Old Triplets Making Flight To Guam

HARRISBURG, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Just 10 months after their flight into this world the Druckenmiller triplets today were bundled into an airliner and were off to see their father at Guam.

The triplets, Martin, Marlin and Marilyn, causing a flurry of excitement at the Harrisburg airport this morning were accompanied by their mother Mrs. Mel S. Druckenmiller, another daughter, two-and-a-half-year-old Rosellen, and their grandmother, Mrs. Martha Peck.

The party will transfer at Pittsburgh to a four-engine Constellation board for Chicago, and then from there fly non-stop to the coast. The Red Cross will meet the precious cargo at San Francisco late this afternoon.

MORE BURGLARIES NOW CHARGED TO LOCAL SUSPECT

from these places had been identified, that he robbed the homes of Vasile Themis, 408 Seventh street, on May 21; and the home of Antonio Dantonio, of 210 E. Madison avenue, around the same date.

Confesses Jobs

Articles stolen from these homes were found at the Biggerstaff residence, whereupon he confessed to these jobs, when the Themis home, a considerable amount of jewelry was taken, the total value being around $530. At the Dantonio home, bed linens, jewelry, $52 in cash, and five fifths of whiskey were taken.

Upon searching the premises Tuesday afternoon, the officers found a truckload of stuff in Biggerstaff's garage, which had been taken from Mooney Brothers Supply company, where he had been employed as a painter. This included tools and building supplies.

Further search is being made of the Biggerstaff home in an effort to pin other burglaries on him.

In most cases, Biggerstaff entered through cellar windows or unlocked cellar doors, and in only one instance, did he remove a first floor window to get in.

He is also believed to have stolen a gun at the Piedmont farm, in North Beaver township.

Robberies Mount

At one o'clock this afternoon, Biggerstaff's robberies mounted to 18, including 17 home and industrial burglaries, and one larceny case.

This morning, Biggerstaff continued reviewing the scenes of the additional places he had visited, and he admitted to the following, which had not been previously reported.

The homes of his employers William and Samuel Mooney, of Neshannock township, where he secured money, meat, and household articles; a fellow employee, Joseph Bailey, of 940 Ryan avenue, where he took several rugs; the Piedmont farm in North Beaver township, where he took a .22 calibre rifle and $300 in money; home of Rudy Klamar, M. Jackson hill, where he stole a 30-30 calibre rifle.

Mr. Klamar did not know the gun had been taken, until the officers acquainted him with the fact that Biggerstaff admitted to having taken it.

He also robbed the home of Sam Delisio, of 507 West Clayton street, where he got $300 in money.

Believe Two-Day Week For Miners Only Temporary

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 31.—(INS)—District leaders of the United Mine Workers expressed the opinion today that John L. Lewis' order cutting the three-day work week to two days next week is a temporary measure.

The UMW chieftain, in a telegram to all district presidents, ordered that Thursday, September 8, "is an idle day for all bituminous miners east of the Mississippi river."

John P. Busarello, president of UMW District 5 in Pittsburgh, said he believed the order applies only to next week, in which the Labor Day holiday occurs.

Lewis' action in "absorbing" the Labor Day holiday is in contrast to the July 4 holiday, when he ordered his diggers to work on Thursday of that week to complete the three-day work week schedule.

Four-Year-Old Dies Today In Trailer Home

BELLEVILLE, Pa., Aug. 31.—(INS)—Death at last claimed the life of 4-year-old Leo G. "Lucky" Jordan who suffered cancer of the lung.

Lucky died today in his trailer home at a trailer village near a government project at Belleville. He had several Christmas presents in the past year because doctors didn't know how long he would live. Back in November fellow employees of his father, Leo, Sr., provided a Santa Claus, presents and tinsel expecting death to come soon.

He had several other Christmas presents after that.

But Lucky seemed to get better. He romped with the other kids and led as much of a normal childhood as his affliction permitted him.

Three weeks ago he was put to bed again. And today he died.

Electronic Company To Drill Thursday

Final Preparations Will Be Made For Participation In Orange Crate Derby

Electronic Warfare Company 418 of the U. S. Naval Reserve will participate in a drill at Deshon Annex with other units of the Fourth Naval district Thursday evening, it is announced by Lt. Walter Kieler, commanding officer.

The drill will be held to prepare for participation in the Orange Crate Derby to be held in the city on Labor Day.

Immediately after the drill a meeting will be held making complete preparations for the derby. The local company will have walkie-talkies both at the starting line and the finish line to make it possible for instant communication between the two points.

Hereafter meetings of the company will be held every Thursday evening at 7:30 at Deshon Annex, Lt. Kieler announces.

F. D. Roosevelt Jr. Will Be Married During Afternoon

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and socialite Miss Suzanne Perrin are to be married in New York City this afternoon according to an announcement by Roosevelt's office.

The exact time and place of the ceremony were not disclosed but it was indicated the wedding would take place in later afternoon, possibly at the apartment of Miss Perrin's mother, Mrs. Lee J. Perrin.

Newsman and photographers were advised that at about 5 p. m. the bride and groom would be available at the apartment for pictures and interviews.

The 34-year-old son of the late president was divorced last May in Nevada by his first wife, the former Ethel DuPont, on grounds of mental cruelty.

Miss Perrin, who is 28, is the daughter of a socially prominent New York family. She served for two years in the Marine Corps Women's Reserve. When the couple obtained a marriage license Aug. 26 she gave her address as the Piping Rock Club, Locust Valley, Long Island.

Roosevelt, who was elected Democratic congressman from the 20th New York district on May 17, gave his address as 305 West End Avenue, New York. He is a partner in the law firm of Poletti, Diamond, Freidin and Amckay.

Miss Perrin's father, the late Lee J. Perrin, was an attorney and also served as chairman of the board of CIBA Pharmaceutical Products Corp. She was graduated from Westover School, Middlebury, Conn., and is listed in the New York social register.

North Beaver Township Fire Has $8,000 Loss

Fire from an undetermined origin completely destroyed a barn on the farm of Martin Andrews, this morning at 10 o'clock, in North Beaver township.

The barn valued at $3,000 was partially covered by insurance. There were 1,400 bushels of corn stored in the huge barn, 400 bushels of oats, (last year's crops) 15,000 feet of lumber, a set of plows, a cultivator and a hundred steel fence posts. All of these items were valued at $5,000, which totaled a loss for Mr. Andrews at $8,000.

According to Bill Kildoo, fire chief, there was no electrical wiring in the barn, and it is not exactly known how the fire started. However, when the blaze was discovered, the absence of a telephone gave the fire a head start. The Andrews had to travel a quarter of a mile down the road in order to use a neighbor's telephone to summon the firemen.

Firemen were unable to save the barn or its contents, and so strived to save the adjoining buildings.

Report Fight At Baseball Field

Report was made to police last evening that a big fight was in progress at Gaston Park baseball field.

Sgt. Grover Syling and Lt. George Kennedy went to the scene, but the fight had ended before they arrived.

Lloyd Wear, of the Moravia-Jackson baseball team, reported that his team was to play the First Congregation team, and that while his team was on the field, a gang of about 14 youths came onto the field and attacked members of the Moravia-Jackson team, five men ganging up on one of the players and beating him severely.

Mr. Wear was instructed to prefer an information against the youths before an alderman.

Vaughan Retracts Endorsement Of Maragon In Probe

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan today retracted the unqualified endorsement of John Maragon he gave the Senate "Five Percent" investigation yesterday.

Under questioning by committee members yesterday, Vaughan stoutly asserted "I would still recommend Maragon for a job with the State Department as he had done in 1946.

Today, Sen. McCarthy (R) Wis., referred to evidence brought out against the former bootblack and White House intimate, and asked: "In view of that, would you still recommend Maragon?"

Vaughan replied: "No I would not."

He said he would wait to see if the testimony were "substantiated" before again making such a recommendation.

PARKING METER BROKEN

Report was made to police that someone had run into the parking meter in front of the Salvation Army Citadel on North Jefferson street. Officers Llewellyn and Rozzi investigated but were unable to find any clue to who had run into the meter. A large hole was made in the sidewalk when the standard was torn out, and it was necessary to secure a red light and place it over the hole to warn pedestrians.

Will Negotiate In Attempt To End Strike In Hawaii

HONOLULU, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Hawaii's seven stevedoring companies agreed late last night to negotiate in New York with the CIO Longshoremen's Union in an effort to end the territory's 122-day-old dock strike.

The negotiations are scheduled to open September 7 under the direction of Cyrus S. Ching, director of the Federal Conciliation and Mediation Service.

Washington
New Dispute
Now Looming

Presidential Appointment
May Add Another Clash
In Nation's Capital

OTHER NEWS OF NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(Special To Central Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Another first class clash over a presidential appointment apparently is shaping up to add to the summer heat of Washington.
The newest differences arise from President Truman's nomination of Carl A. Igenfritz as chairman of the munitions board at $14,000 a year.
Congressmen indicate that opposition is likely to arise, not because they dislike the Pittsburgh steel executive or feel that he is not qualified for the post, but because he wants to take his government pay and his regular paycheck from United States Steel corporation as well. They feel that a man drawing a salary in an important government job should not be receiving pay from a private corporation at the same time.
The paycheck Igenfritz is reluctant to abandon is for $70,000 a year as vice president in charge of purchases for the giant of the steel industry.

SUB-SOLUTION

The United States Navy has one answer to the problem of detecting and sinking the modern, snorkel-type submarine.
At Akron, O., the Navy is building the largest non-rigid airship ever constructed—324 feet long with a capacity of $75,000 cubic feet of non-inflammable helium gas.
This compares with the rigid-type airship Akron and Macon of 1931-32 which were 785 feet long. However, aboard the new blimp will be futuristic-appearing devices to detect and track the modern undersea fighters.
The new airship will have the advantage of being able to hover over a given area almost indefinitely while making its search. Its large fuel capacity will also make it useful on long-range patrols. The big blimp will be able to refuel in flight by dropping a fuel line to a surface ship and also secure ballast by scooping water from the sea.

Its two motors are to be mounted within the control car, thus permitting repairs on them in flight. The new ship will have a maximum speed of about 75 knots—which is just about three times as fast as the most modern sub can travel submerged these days.

IT TAKES TIME

Air force experience in developing its newest jet fighter points up the inescapable fact that you cannot perfect an airplane overnight.
Critics of the B-36 bomber make much of the fact that it was designed in 1941 and now, eight years later, still is not completely developed.
Listen to the story of the Lockheed F-90, remembering that it was conceived in 1945, four years after the B-36—an interim in which the United States a great deal about aeronautics that it didn't know in 1941.
Two years after its conception, the F-90 design was accepted by the Air Force for further development and construction of a prototype. During the following two years, Lockheed experimented with 65 major configurations before settling on a needle-nose, swept-wing. There were 100 engineers working on it.
Now, in 1949, the plane has completed 16 test flights. It will be tested for another year at the Air Force base at Muroc, Cal., after which it will go into service. But tests and further development will go on for at least three more years.
Eight years from drawing board to full growth!

FARM PRICE SUPPORT

New optimism for passage of a compromise farm price support program has been given agricultural interests through the revelation of Republican Representative Clifford R. Hope of Kansas, minority bellwether on farm legislation, that he regards favorably the Anderson plan.
This program, drawn up by a Senate agriculture subcommittee chaired by former Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson, would grant price supports of 75 to 90 per cent of the parity yardstick for basic farm commodities on which production limits have been set. These include peanuts, tobacco, wheat, corn, cotton and rice.
"Storable non-basis" commodities are provided for similarly with the Secretary of Agriculture getting broad discretion on application of price supports.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Bruce Cabot, who has been committing movie villainies for 14 years and reaping a financial harvest from his snide words and deeds, cannot understand why Hollywood sees him like that.
"I'm pegged as a heavy," he commented, "and I don't even wear a moustache."
Cabot Puzzled
What puzzles "Bad Man" Cabot mainly is why he should be picked on to be the guy who is always ready, willing and able to do them wrong.
"If my face is my fortune for my villainous run of luck, I want to know who decides who has a face the heroine can't love and on what they base their decision, he said.
"In real life, I'm not a too unpopular fellow. People don't exactly shy away from me. And I have dates with many young ladies who don't expect me to invite them up to see my etchings.
"As a matter of record, I don't own any etchings.
"As for my mugg, I don't feel that it's any more villainous than the one the gent on my right owns. Yet, by Hollywood casting standards, I'm labeled as 'dangerous.'

Symphony Plays Concert Tonight

Second Outdoor "Pops" Of The Season To Have New Program At Taggart Stadium

New Castle Symphony Orchestra with Anthony Casbero conducting presents its second "Pop" concert tonight at Taggart Stadium at 8:30.

The program is one of popular appeal and will open with the well known Overture to the Barber of Seville by Rossini. Such favorites as Strauss "Blue Danube Waltz", the attractive Minuet by Roscherini and the Coronation March from "The Prophet" by Meyerbeer are included in the program which is especially designed for pleasant listening. A large crowd is expected to enjoy the concert in comfortable surroundings.

The orchestra will have as its guests tonight a number of children and they plan to play some things especially for them.

The first "Pop" concert given in July was an outstanding success, and the community is anticipating another enjoyable evening of music under the stars. Tickets for tonight's concert have been available in the local music stores during the past several weeks and will also be on sale at the stadium tonight.

Siberian temperatures fall even lower than at the North Pole.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

ENJOY YOUR HOME

Whenever I hear women complain that housekeeping is a 24-hour-a-day job with no time for outside interests, I think of a very good friend of mine whose house is immaculate and whose two school-age children are well-cared-for and whose life is so arranged that she keeps up-to-the-minute on outside interests.

Once I asked her how she managed to keep abreast of current events, reading and maintaining an active interest in civic affairs. I knew she had no servant nor child's nurse nor cook. She told me that she cleaned her house thoroughly one day a week and enjoyed it the other six days. Instead of making of herself a household drudge, she quickly puts her house in order after getting her husband and two youngsters off for the day. By noon, she says she has finished her chores and has the afternoon free to do as she wishes until dinner time.

I have another friend in similar circumstances. Since she is a dweller with no specified plan, she spends the entire day doing what the other one does in a few hours.

There are mothers of large families whose every waking minute must be spent in washing, ironing, cleaning or baby tending. Nothing but servant help can alleviate such a situation. But my friend with the moderate-sized house and moderate-sized family properly budgets her time—so that she enjoys her work six days a week. Try it and see!

Question: My son is going to give his girl an engagement ring. I know her family only slightly, although we live in the same town. Do we call on her first or do they call on us first?

Answer: You call on her and her family within twenty-four hours after the engagement is announced.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

West Coast Sardine Fleet Is Tied Up

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.—Price dispute has tied up the West Coast sardine fleet at the height of its biggest season in several years. A union spokesman, declaring the fishermen were not on strike, said there was no dispute with the employers yet. However the fishermen have opposed a threat by fish processors to pay only $30 a ton for sardines made into fish meal and fish oil. The present price is $40 a ton and fishermen claim that the $30 price will not allow them to operate at a profit. Above are 26 of the boats tied up at San Francisco.

Indiantown Gap Camp For Underprivileged Cost State $185,157

HARRISBURG, Aug. 31.—(INS)—The commonwealth picked up a $185,157 "check" for the cost of operating the state's camp for underprivileged boys at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation.

An official audit of Camp Penn showed expenditures were $15,220 under the $200,000 earmarked by the General Assembly for the camping experiment. Under terms of the act creating the camp, $600,000 was appropriated, including $200,000 for 2,500 boys in 1949 and $400,000 for double that number in 1950.

The report was issued by Auditor General Weldon B. Heyburn following a conference with Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis B. Haas, Health Secretary Norris W. Vaux and Adjutant General Frank A. Weber.

Food for the 1,988 'teen-age youths who stayed the entire two weeks of the camp cost $53,423.

Other principal expenditures included $47,111 for clothing and toilet articles; $5,857 for athletic equipment; $38,260 for wages and traveling expenses of counselors and office force; and $27,071 for bus and rail transportation to and from the camp for campers.

All clothing and toilet articles used were made the property of each boy. The audit pointed out that "some of the property remaining on hand can be used again next year, but the value of it is of little consequence and would not reflect an appreciable amount."

POTATOES HARVESTED HARRISBURG.—Harvesting of early potatoes continues, with few growers reporting good yields. Late varieties are making good growth. Cutting of tobacco is now general in Lancaster county. Truck crops are making good growth, although much damage from crop excess and being marked. Conditions of pastures is only fair, with many in the northeast quarter of the state providing little or no grazing.

Steel Industry Shows Pick-Up

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(INS)—The pick-up in the steel industry has now carried on too long to be labelled a mere flash in the pan.

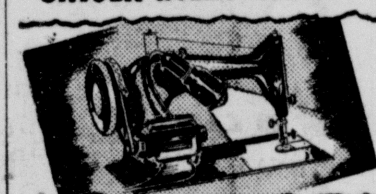

This was the view expressed today by the magazine Iron Age which said that the industry amazed itself by making at least 600,000 tons more steel in August than its most optimistic executives thought possible.

While the National Metalworking Weekly conceded that buyer fear of a steel tie-up played a part in boosting steel order backlog, it declared that much of the business now on steel mill books represents a return to normal buying patterns.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

The legion of loyal friends of Abe Burrows was gratified but not surprised when he achieved a radio program of his own. For years he fretted in anonymity as the author of the Duffy's Tavern scripts. On the side he convulsed the cognoscenti of Hollywood and Broadway with songs like The Girl With the Three Blue Eyes (What Makes Her Different?), and She Sang Him the Indian Love Call, But He Looked at Her and Said "Ugh."

Burrows bills himself as "The Velvet Foghorn," and explains, "My songs are peculiar; they aren't written in any key." His notion of a rousing campaign song was "My Father Wants A Third Party; He's Been Thrown Out of Two Tonight." His take-off on a Norman Corwin radio show is so devastating that Corwin admits it haunted his creative hours for weeks. "Norman was a wonderful sport about it," enthuses Burrows. "Of course, he isn't talking to me, but . . ."

Burrows served a brief spell as a producer at Paramount. "I prefer not to stub my toes at the outset on a new picture," he told the Board of Directors. "Won't you let me get into my stride by doing a good remark first?" "That's very modest of you and very wise," said the chairman. "What picture would you like to remake?" "Going My Way," said Burrows.

Back in radio, Burrows declares, "All I need now is sex appeal. Mine is the only show women turn off to listen to hockey games." Copyright, 1949, by Bennett Cerf. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

Accident Victims Show Improvement

It was reported from the James Memorial hospital this morning that the two men injured when a scaffold on which they were working fell with them a distance of around 30 feet late Tuesday morning, are showing some improvement today.

Myles J. Kegg, who alighted on his head and shoulders, had a good night, the hospital stated, and it is believed the head injuries he received are not of a serious nature. Earl Chaffee, who suffered fractures of the pelvis and right elbow, had only a fair night, the hospital stated, but his condition is believed satisfactory.

THOMPSON-MERCER MARRIAGE EVENT

Miss Marian A. Thompson of New Wilmington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Leroy Thompson, New Jersey, and Chester Lynnwood Mercer, son of Mrs. A. Clyde Mercer of New Wilmington, and the late Rev. A. Clyde Mercer, were united in marriage on Saturday, August 27.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized at 2:30 p.m. in the Neshannock Presbyterian church, New Wilmington.

Dr. James M. Blackwood, Wurttemberg, uncle of the groom, was the officiating minister.

The bride wore an aqua street length dress with pink accessories and carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli, mums, and pink roses centered with orchids, and tied with a white satin sash.

Mr. Nyron Ligo, New Wilmington, sister of the bride, was the attending matron of honor. She wore navy blue with matching accents and carried the same type of flowers as the bride.

Robert A. Boyer, New Wilmington, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Joseph Wallace, Valencia, brother-in-law of the bride, and Harry Means of New Wilmington.

Organist, Miss Ruth Sewell, New Wilmington, presented a recital of appropriate nuptial selections preceding and during the exchange of vows.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Later, a largely attended reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Mercer left for a short wedding trip by motor. They will live in their newly furnished apartment in Volant.

The bride is a graduate of New Wilmington high school and attended Westminster college. The groom was graduated from Dayton Vocational high school, Dayton, Pa., and also attended Westminster college.

Mrs. Mercer is a music instructor in the public schools, having taught at Bay City, Mich., and Ford City, Pa.

The groom is employed by the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation at Duquesne, Pa. He served four years in the Air Corps in the Pacific area.

Happy Relatives Club
Mrs. Mary Fontana, 213 Bolt street, received the Happy Relatives, recently in her home.

The evening hours were spent informally, and Joan Effinite captured the card prize. Mrs. Viola Janovich received the door prize. The birthday of Mrs. Viola Janovich was honored, and she received a gift from her secret pal.

Later the hostess served a tasty lunch. Mrs. Phil Fontana aided. September 8 is the meeting with Mrs. Creda Mingione, 222 South Liberty street.

DON DeGENNARO HONORED AT PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Jack DeGennaro, 714 Acorn street, entertained friends, relatives and neighbors numbering 50 at a lawn party held Saturday at their home in honor of the 17th birthday anniversary of their son Don. This also was a farewell event, as Don left Monday afternoon for Ft. Dix, N. J., having enlisted for three years service with the U. S. Army.

Gay decorations and brightly colored lights added to the evening's festivity.

During the entertainment period the honored guest played several piano selections and Fred DePolis favored with musical numbers on the guitar. Singing and dancing also occupied the guests.

At a late hour refreshments were served from a lawn table centered with a large birthday cake. Assisting the hostess in serving were her four sisters, Mrs. Frances Cagnetti, Mrs. Marion Mangiatordi, Mrs. Norman Sheen and Mrs. Earl Farrar. Miss Delores Stokes helped serve also.

Don's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Nicoletta Capperino, was a special guest for the occasion. The honoree received many useful gifts and a purse of money.

P. H. C. TO MEET
Members of P. H. C. No. 5 will meet in the I. O. O. F. hall on Thursday, September 1, at 6 p. m. for a hot covered dish dinner in honor of the incoming officers.

Mrs. Rilla Rishel and her committee will be in charge. Special guests for the occasion will be Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Radford, district supervisors, and State Deputy Vern Stevens and wife.

POTOCZNY-GOSTYLA EXCHANGE OF VOWS

Miss Jane Potoczny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Potoczny, 1610 South Jefferson street, and Harry Gostyla, son of Mrs. Vera Gostyla, 10 Magee street, were united in marriage on August 27. The impressive ceremony was performed in the Holy Trinity Polish National Catholic church at 3:30 p. m. Rev. Edward C. Kuzminski officiated at the exchange of vows using the double ring service before an altar banked with summer flowers.

The youthful bride was attired in a white organ gown fashioned with puffed sleeves, pinafore yoke worked in layers of scallops and outlined by dainty embroidery of pearl and chalk beads. The filmy skirt was tucked row on row to furnish the fullness. White organza mitts and a fingertip Swiss illusion veil held in place by a crown of lace and illusion accented the charming appearance of the bride. Her flowers were a round bouquet of white roses centered with white Time roses. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Alice Grzebleniak was maid of honor. She was attractively attired in yellow dotted Swiss, with a ruffled neckline and full skirt with which she wore dotted Swiss mitts. A yellow sweetheart shaped bonnet featured her head-dress. She carried a basket of red roses and yellow baby mums.

Identical frocks in orchid and green were worn by the bridesmaids, Regina Owoc and Ann Skuba. They wore head-gresses and carried baskets of flowers. Miss Marilee Data, niece of the bride. was the junior bridesmaid, wearing a white dotted Swiss gown identical to those of the bridesmaids with a white bonnet and matching basket of flowers.

John Ostrowski served the groom as best man. The ushers were Edward Bisztyga and Walter Gamulak.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Edward Kopka, church organist, with the Lutnia choir singing. The following solos were sung by Mrs. Kopka: "I Love You Truly," "Bacause" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A wedding dinner was served at the parish hall with a reception following in the evening at the Falcon hall with 250 guests attending.

with Dr. Copeland, father of the bridegroom, and Rev. Clarence Stadlander officiating. Dr. Copeland is the former pastor of the Third United Presbyterian church of New Castle, and is now superintendent of the United Presbyterian Pittsburgh Synod.

Bouquets of white gladioli and lighted candelabra graced the altar of the church. The bride wore a gown of brocade satin. It was fashioned with a snug bodice and bertha at the bateau neckline, and had a very full skirt with a brush train. A scalloped cap of brocade held her fingertip veil of bridal illusion and orchids topped her cascade bouquet of white gladioli flowers.

Miss Alice Spore, as maid of honor, and Miss Susan Rogers, as bridesmaid, were gowned alike in apple green moire taffeta and carried arm bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums and golden daisies.

Kent Marling was best man, and ushering were the bride's brothers, Philip and Richard Tear, William Copeland, brother of the groom, and Roger Baldwin. Music

Court House

Splinter Party
Has 3 Members

Necessary To Set Up Ballots
In Three Precincts For Progressives

OTHER EVENTS
IN COURT HOUSE

With a registered membership of three, the Progressive party gets a ballot in the September 13 primary.

Usually the splinter parties poll less votes than required to put them upon the ballot. In last year's November election the Progressive party polled sufficient strength to get on the ballot and there they are.

Two women and a man constitute the registered membership of the progressives in Lawrence county. One of the women is registered in the Sixth precinct of the Second ward, one in South New Castle Boro and a man in the Fourth precinct of the Fifth ward.

In this county the Progressive party is small enough that every member could have a title.

To the election board it is an annoyance for it means setting up a ballot for one person in each of three precincts.

OLD IRON JAW STILL LOOSE
Out in the Slippery Rock there is a muskie that for several years has defied the fishermen.

Nicknamed "Old Iron Jaw" the muskie has been hooked several times but each time darts into some rock formations that soon cut the line.

Fishermen who have hooked him say "Old Iron Jaw" is about 48 inches long and probably weighs 35 to 40 pounds.

County Controller Andrew M.

Dodds says a number of fishermen have tried for "Old Iron Jaw" but none have yet hauled him in.

Captain Is Sued
For Flying While Being Intoxicated

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—(INS)—A U. S. Air Force captain is defendant in a $1,500,000 suit filed by a New York woman charging she suffered injuries in a plane he piloted "while intoxicated."

The 22-year-old divorcee, Gloria Gerstman, in an affidavit filed in federal court, named Capt. Samuel E. Poole, Jr., 25, as the defendant.

Miss Gerstman alleged that the crash occurred July 11, 1948, at Dracut, Mass., and involved a twin-engine plane owned by Poole.

Poole purportedly held a commercial pilot's license giving him the right to operate a private plane.

He came to the hearing from Valley Forge General hospital where he has been recovering from injuries incurred in another plane crash a month after the one in which Miss Gerstman was hurt.

She charged that Poole and her ex-husband—William Markowitz, a night club operator—engaged with several other persons in a "drinking party" and became intoxicated at Dracut.

It was decided to fly to New York to continue the party and get some Chinese food, she alleged.

Poole and Markowitz, Miss Gerstman contended, "compelled, coerced and physically" forced her aboard the plane which crashed taking off from an unlighted field.

Leopard Skin Coat Business Hard On African Farmers

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Female fashion fads have produced a crisis for farmers in Kenya, Africa, so severe it got United Nations attention.

Jean Paul Harroy, Belgian delegate to the U. N. conservation conference, explained it was a matter of the demand of otherwise civilized women in the U. S. and Europe for leopard skin coats. This sent up the price on dead leopards in Kenya.

So the leopards were trapped almost to extinction. And the destructive baboon and bush pig, usually the leopard's meat, have increased greatly, threatening the remaining livelihood of the one time leopard trappers who put themselves out of business by their own hard work.

Ask Chinese Pirate
To Maintain Order

LONDON, Aug. 31.—(INS)—An aged Chinese pirate named "Lamp Chimney" Li reportedly has been asked to maintain order in Canton between the Chinese Nationalist evacuation and the Communist occupation of the provisional capital.

The London Daily Telegraph, in a Hong Kong dispatch, said that "Lamp Chimney" controls the Pearl river area between Canton and Hong Kong.

Nationalist officers were said to have asked him to take over during the interim between government and Communist control.

GUARDSMEN HURT
FORT LEONARD WOOD, Mo.,
Aug. 31.—(INS)—Army authorities reported seven St. Louis national guardsmen were injured, one seriously, when a mortar shell exploded among them during a demonstration at Fort Leonard Wood on Tuesday.

Public relations officers at Fort Leonard Wood said the accident occurred yesterday when the shell was accidentally deflected and exploded among the men as they watched a firing problem.

Today's Fashion Flash

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Handbags—like suckers—can be good all day if they're tastefully put together.

New York designers recommended today that women buy simple, unadorned envelope bags for next fall... then trim them with the proper clips and pins.

For afternoon, pin gold trimmings on the flap. For evening, use rhinestones or pearls.

The envelope bag, untrimmied, is one of many 1949 fashion throwbacks to the days of the 1920's. So are the special handbag clips and pins being shown for wear upon it: jeweled monograms, gold bars, pearl flower clusters, and silver-link chateaus.

The plain bags, featured in most department stores, are made in velvet, suede and satin.

Patient Removed From 'Iron Lung'
For Baby's Birth

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Aug. 31.—(INS)—A 24-year-old polio patient was removed from an "iron lung" for 45 minutes Tuesday to give birth to a six-pound boy. Both were reported "doing fine."

The mother, Mrs. Dorothy Schneider, of Jersey City, was fed oxygen to keep her alive throughout the delivery, which doctors described as "comparatively easy."

Four doctors attended the birth in the isolation unit of the Jersey City Medical Center, where Mrs. Schneider is convalescing along with 57 other polio patients. The child was taken to Margaret Hague Maternity hospital.

Mrs. Schneider went to the medical center on August 25 and three days later her illness was diagnosed as polio. She was transferred then to the isolation unit.

The child is the first born to Mrs. Schneider and her husband, Henry, a bookkeeper.

Over 100 Different Species Of Trees
In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG.—Pennsylvania has more important forest tree species than all of Europe, according to the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters.

Because of the state's geographical position, it is the meeting place of many northern and southern species of trees.

There are over 100 different varieties found in the state, about half of which are classed as important forest tree species.

Record 6076 Dams
Throughout State

HARRISBURG.—The Water and Power Resources board has a record of 6,076 dams built in the state, according to the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters.

The greater number of these dams are low, relatively unimportant structures. There are, however, 698 dams, the failure of which would endanger life and property.

These dams are examined periodically by expert engineers of the Water and Power Resources board, so that any signs of deterioration may be corrected before it develops to an extent that the safety of the dam is affected.

Grove City Man
Hurt In Auto Crash
In Colorado Area

CHEYENNE WELLS, Colo., Aug. 31.—(INS)—One man was killed and four others, including three from Pennsylvania, were hurt when their jeep overturned 11 miles west of Cheyenne Wells.

The fatality was identified as Thomas Mart, 20, of Kansas City. The injured, but not seriously, were Eugene Jackson, 25, driver, Norwalk, Conn.; Gordon Atkinson, 19, Grove City, Pa.; Willard S. Clewell, Jr., 28, and Glenn I. Post, 20, both of Bethlehem, Pa.

Police said a tire blow-out caused the accident. The injured were treated at Cheyenne Wells hospital.

Funds Are Raised Assuring Trip For National Tourney

One of the brightest collection of young diamond stars ever collected in this community will leave at four o'clock Thursday morning for Louisville and the Junior National Amateur Baseball Federation tourney.

The local nine represents the best in under 19 year old talent in the county. It will be pitted against 23 contenders from all over the United States in the four-day tournament that starts Friday morning and ends Labor Day evening.

Legion team coaches Wes Mann and Sam Ross will manage the team in the national tourney. They were assisted in picking the squad by Norm Pack of Ellwood, Len Gilbert from the City League, and Jim Martin from the County loop.

Needed Funds Raised
The boys practiced everyday this week for their big chance were not sure until late yesterday afternoon if they would be financially able to make the trip.

A City-County All-Star baseball game Monday night raised $350 toward an estimated $700 required for the trip. Donations made at the News office for the boys totaled another $100. Yesterday County Commissioners Joseph Travers and Harvey Bush teamed with Mann and Ross to collect another $250 from private contributors to assure the boys a chance at a national championship.

The team must be in Louisville for a meeting by eight o'clock Thursday evening, and will meet Dayton, Ohio at 10 the following morning in the first round game. Each team must lose two games before it is eliminated from tournament competition.

Read Injured
Chances for the New Castle entry's success were somewhat hampered by an announcement from New Castle High football camp that Don Reed, an end prospect, and star left fielder for the baseball team, has suffered torn ligaments in his legs and will be on crutches for two weeks.

The squad of seventeen boys to make the trip represent City League, County League North County League and New Castle Legion teams. These are John Sampson, third base; John Thompson, shortstop; Dick Kroesen, shortstop; Charles Brown, second base; Tom

Tuesday Night Game At Youngstown Rained Out, Can Climb Out Of Cellar

New Castle and Youngstown will play a twin-bill at Youngstown's Idora Park field tonight, the first game starting at 7:30 o'clock.

A severe rain-storm early last evening made the playing of the Tuesday game impossible.

Tonight the Nats and Athletics will meet each other for the final time this year. Youngstown has the edge for the season with 11 wins in 18 contests. Manager Billy Mongiello is hoping that his Nats can grab the final two games, and climb into seventh place in the league standing, as Vandergrift lost at Erie last night.

Uniontown and Oil City also were rained out last night at Oil City, and will play two games tonight. If New Castle wins two Mongiello has nominated Frank Wagner to seek his 19th win of the year at Youngstown tonight and has named Ty Corbett to pitch the other game. Just who goes in the first game was not decided upon and will not be known until game time. Youngstown will use the veteran Johnny Kucab in one game it was indicated.

A sixth place finish in the league would please Mongiello and the Nats considerably.

National Amateur Continues Today

By JOHN BARRINGTON
(International News Service Sports Writer)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 31.—The process of skimming the cream off the top of the National Amateur Golf Tournament field was duly abetted today by an old truism.

The first round pairing at Rochester's Oak Hill Country Club course had irresistible object Skee Riegel of Tulsa, Okla., the 1948 champion, meeting immovable force Frank Stranahan, the Toledo, O., perennial challenger.

And a fourth round match in the afternoon would bring together the defending champion, Willie Turnesa of White Plains, N. Y., and his 1948 runner-up, Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—providing both survive third round tests in the morning.

There was no absolute guarantee that both would make the grade, for the skimming off process was fairly successful yesterday with some rank outsiders handling the ladies.

British Stars Lose
Chief victims were Britain's two top entries in the tourney—Sam McCready, the British champion, and Ronnie White, star of the Britons' Walker Cup team.

Danny Carmichael, 30-year-old Columbus, O., architect and ex-Navy fighter pilot, took care of McCready, 5 and 4, and P. J. Boatwright of Spartanburg, S. C., eliminated White, 3 and 2.

TOMMY HENRICH LEAVES HOSPITAL
CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Tommy Henrich, injured New York Yankees star, was slated to leave St. Luke's hospital in Chicago today.

Henrich fractured two vertebrae when he crashed into the right field wall in Comiskey Park Sunday in a game against the Chicago White Sox. Dr. John Norcross said Henrich would be lost to the American League leaders for the rest of the season.

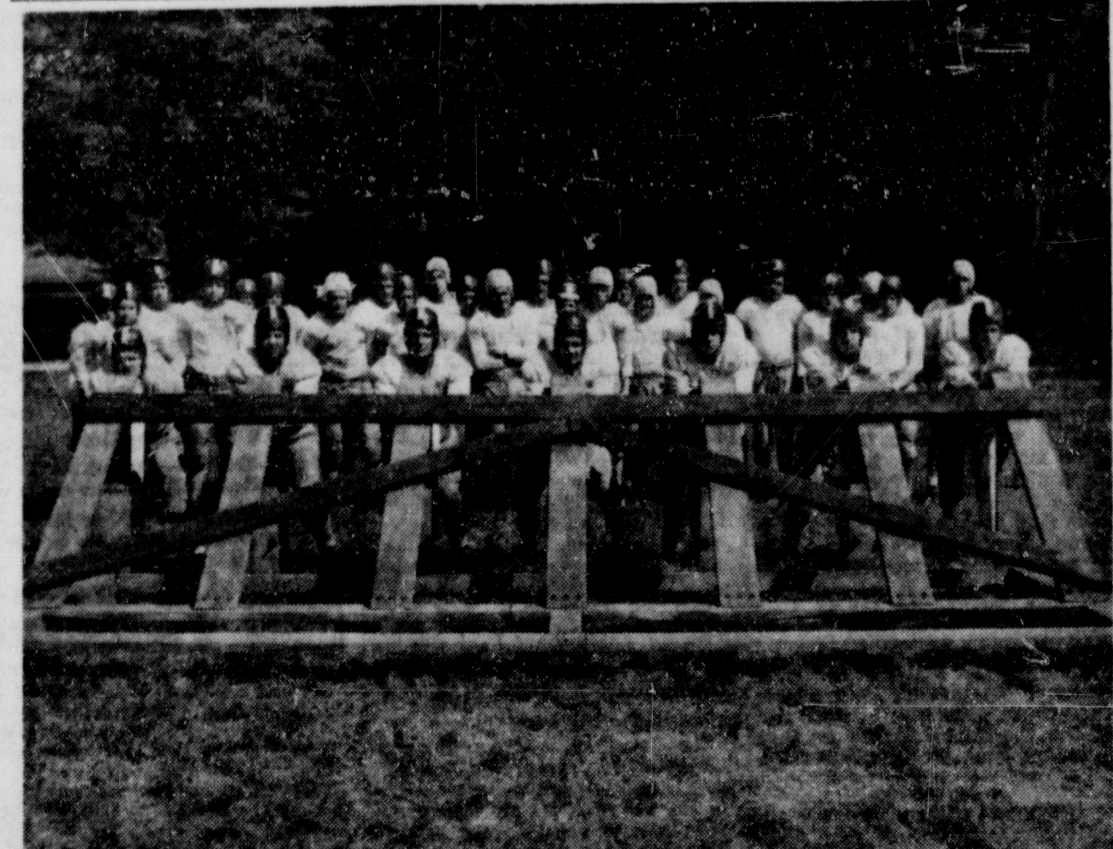

EAST SIDE SERIES
First game of a five game series for the East Side Softball Championship will be played tonight when the East Side Rebels meet the East Side Shamrocks at Rose Avenue Field at 6 o'clock.

Lane is scheduled to go for the Shamrocks, with Gunther probably getting the nod for the Rebels.

THIRD U. P. WINS
The Third U. P. Softball team won a church league game last night from the St. Vitus team 3 to 1 at Rose Avenue Field, with Dale Weisker the winning pitcher and Medure the loser.

The Third U. P. runs were scored by Don Wyman, Byler and Vince Galano.

Gil Hodges Gives Dodgers Necessary Batting Punch

By HOWARD SIGMANT
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—They laughed when catcher Gil Hodges switched mits last season and became the Brooklyn Dodgers' first baseman. They didn't know that he would become the game's best.

Gil took to his new position like a fish to water, and today there isn't a first sacker in either league to match him. Both infield and at the plate, Hodges stands out as tops in the majors.

Eddie Watkins of the Phillies, his only other contender for the position, was incapacitated earlier in the season by a bullet.

Hodges Sensational
Hodges who has batted over .300 most of the year, currently sports a .294 average. But he has driven in 91 runs and ranks third in the National League in that department.

His twenty-first home run in the ninth inning yesterday with one out aboard gave the Dodgers a 4-to-3 win over the Pittsburgh Pirates and lifted them to within a game and a half of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The first baseman's sudden death blow put a damper on Murry Dickson's attempt to win his sixth straight. And although the little right-hander limited the Brook to six hits, he was tagged with his 13th loss. Rex Barney got the win, his seventh.

Braves Drop Cards
Boston's Braves dropped their patsy role as far as St. Louis is concerned and walloped the Red Birds, 12 to 4. Five Cardinal hurlers were pounded for 16 hits, including three homers.

No other games were scheduled in the National League.

Red Sox Win
The Boston Red Sox climbed to within three games of the New York Yankees by ending two Detroit win streaks via a 3-to-0 shut-out. The injury-plagued New York Yankees dropped a 6-to-2 decision to the St. Louis Browns and saw another of their number become an infirmity patient. Catcher Ken Silvera was the latest casualty. He was hit in the head by Les Moss' bat and four stitches were needed to close the gash.

Washington's Lloyd Little won a 1-to-0 ten-inning pitcher's duel with Bill Wight of the White Sox. Little allowed but three hits.

Cleveland and the Philly A's were rained out.

PIGEON RACING STAGES RETURN TO NEW CASTLE

Races Being Held Every Week In City From Distances Of 100 To 500 Miles

A sport long gone from New Castle, raising and racing of homing pigeons, has returned to the city, and a club with 10 members has begun activities.

The club holds monthly meetings at the rear of 215 North Scott street, and any persons interested in joining the club should watch for meeting dates.

Pigeons are shipped from this address every Saturday evening during racing season, racing from 100 to 500 miles. All are welcome to come and watch the activities.

Two Races So Far
Two races have been held already, the first on August 21 and the second on August 28. Results of the first race show S. Lechwar finishing first, followed by S. Dombeck, H. Miller, Charles Fassinger, Lipinski and M. Bales.

Results of the August 28 race, from Coshocton, O., find S. Lechwar again winning, followed by M. Bales, Lipinski and Dombeck, in that order.

Next race will be held September 4 from Newark, O., a distance of 134 miles.

All sportsmen in the fields with their guns are asked not to shoot but protect these homing pigeons.

Legion Teams Start Series

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 31.—(INS)—Four American Legion Junior Baseball teams, survivors of a 16-000-team nation-wide elimination, begin the annual junior world series in Omaha's municipal stadium tonight.

Favored in the five-day series are Budde Post 507, Cincinnati, with a won-lost record of 32-2, and Erwin Post 227, of Oakland, Cal., the only undefeated team in the national elimination.

The other entrants are heavy-hitting Wheeling Post 1, of Wheeling, W. Va., and Atlanta Post 169, Atlanta, Ga.

Enon Valley Club To Meet Thursday

The Enon Valley Rod and Gun Club will have an important meeting at the Enon Valley Township building, at 8 o'clock Thursday evening it was announced, by Acting Secretary Delbert H. Porter today.

A special lunch is being served following the meeting.

It is urged that all farmers in the Enon Valley area attend this meeting, as a discussion of posting of land will be taken up, as regards to the coming hunting season. The discussion will be vital to every farmer in the district.

Pitt Gridders Start Training

MEADVILLE, Pa., Aug. 31.—(INS)—Fifty-five Pitt gridders today began two-weeks of conditioning drills at Allegheny College in Meadville.

Panther Coach Walter (Mike) Milligan, starting his third year, had the boys up early this morning for the initial workout. Milligan said he planned the usual two-day drills.

CIVICS, RYANTOWN MEET THURSDAY
Ryantown has scheduled an exhibition baseball game with the Union Civics for 5:45 Thursday evening Sept. 1 at Scotland Lane field.

Managers of the City League rivals have asked that all players report promptly.

CONGREGATIONALS WIN
First Congregational defeated league-leading Moravia-Jackson 6 to 5 Wednesday night at Gaston Park. Bill Phillips and Jack Jones hit home runs to win the game. Bill Rose was the winning pitcher.

The Congregationalists will play Third U. P. at Rose Ave., Thursday night.

Coach Maurice (Clipper) Smith has invited about 50 candidates to begin football training on Aug. 29 at Lafayette College.

Catchers for the Vets will be Peachy Fornataro and Sammy Buliano. Pitchers are Norm "Canonball" Bishara, Liposky, Greg Ross and "Ironhorse Lee" Gaidro.

Richards To Manage
Tipper Richards will manage the veterans' team.

Next year the DeCarbo Veterans are planning to put a team in the softball league and this series will be a tipoff on really how good they are.

All are veterans of many seasons of city softball league play and if they live up to their past performances the new champs will have their hands full.

Sammy Calazza will start the same team that took over the Shamrocks and the Moose for the city crown, with Rhodes, Spanish or Conglose starting. Bishara will probably pitch for the Vets.

BILL CORUM
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—From now on it would appear that the Cleveland Indians may be sounding their "Wah-hoo-wahs" with a Bronx accent.

After months of dickering, it seems that the world's baseball champions—for about another month—finally have been sold to a syndicate headed by Hank Greenberg, the old fence-buster from The Bronx.

Sale Not Denied
The Indians, of course, have been sold more often than a blind man's lead pencil. Indeed, it has been a dull day in the baseball rumor mart these past two years when they haven't been sold.

But this time it looks like the McCoy. Or rather the Greenberg. For big Hank, former first base star of the Detroit Tigers and Pittsburgh Pirates and one of his playing days a V. P. of the Cleveland club, and Bill Veeck have refused to deny that the deal has been closed.

Greenberg Right Type
Less than two weeks ago, we wrote that Greenberg as the ideal type of young baseball executive.

A real baseball man, who would be in the game to make a career and future of it, and not a quick turnover dollar.

Assuming that no hitch will develop in the Cleveland deal at the last moment, we feel sure that Hank, as club owner and executive, will prove to be just that.

Baseball, which has had him practically all of his life, is lucky to be able to keep him.

The details of this long-expected development in connection with the Cleveland club have not been announced. But it is logical to believe that associated with Greenberg are his long-time friends, Louis and David Marx, the toy tycoons.

The Marx freeres have made heads of young baseball executive. Since they also are friends of ours, we trust that they won't discover now that they have bought an expensive one.

Papa Gimbel Too
It might also be logical to believe that Greenberg's father-in-law, Bernard Gimbel, is associated in the deal. Mr. Gimbel is a sports fan from away up the road, chairman of the Madison Square Garden board, owner of fine show horses, etc.

His baseball, however, Gimbel has been able to take or leave alone and it is reasonably certain that in this instance he is leaving it alone. In short, I'm pretty sure that he is not a member of the group that has bought the Cleveland club.

DeCarbo Veterans Challenge City Softball Champs
Best Of Three Game Series To Begin Friday Night At Dean Park

DeCarbo Bombers Veterans have challenged the newly crowned city softball champions, DeCarbo Bombers, to a three game series beginning Friday night at 6 o'clock at Dean Park.

Appearing on the Veterans' team will be Frank Coppel, Forconi, Gabby DeCarbo and Nickie Ross in the outfield; Joe Mazzeri, Sam Coppel, Benny Goclan, Ted Turner, Lou Nanny, Nickie Gennock and Pete Al Zingaro for infield duty.

Catchers for the Vets will be Peachy Fornataro and Sammy Buliano. Pitchers are Norm "Canonball" Bishara, Liposky, Greg Ross and "Ironhorse Lee" Gaidro.

Ecclesiastics Seek Series Victory

Janacone To Hurl Against Shelar Of Indies In Third Game Of Play-offs Tonight

Playoff action under the lights of Flaherty Field features tonight's local diamond card.

Lawrence Indies with a 2 and 0 advantage over the Ecclesian club will attempt to wind up the final playoff series in the City League tonight. Game time is eight o'clock.

Ecclesiastics Confident
Ecclesian Club Manager Annarella is confident that his team can play much better baseball than shown in the first two games, easily captured by the Indies, and will have a well-drilled array of his stars on hand tonight.

Handsome Dick Janacone will be on the mound for the Ecclesiastics.

Wayne Shelar gets Manager Hoss Zidow's starting nod. Both lads pitched in the Mid-Atlantic league earlier in the summer and are considered two of the brightest pitching prospects in the city district.

A large crowd is expected, at the blue-chip contest, which may end City League action for the 1949 season.

Connie Mack Picks Yankees

Venerable Connie Says
"Yanks Have Too Much Depth For League"

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—(INS)—Venerable Connie Mack, pilot of the Philadelphia Athletics, is ready to concede the American League flag to the New York Yankees "by a city block."

The Yankees have been up there all year and I believe they'll stay on top," said Connie as he watched last night's downpour at the Cleveland Stadium force postponement of the A's game with the Indians. "They've had injuries to key men all season and often the replacement does a better job than the regular," declared the boss of the Athletics.

Have Depth
The secret of the Bronx Bombers' stay at the top of the league's standings is due to depth—"good men all the way down," he said. Baseball's grand old man disposed of the second place Boston Red Sox:

"They looked good until they came into Cleveland, but I don't think those three defeats will do their spirit any good," Connie declared, referring to the Red Sox's loss of three straight games to the Red Sox.

As for Cleveland, Connie thinks the Tribe is a good ball club, but the Yanks are still his choice for the league title.

Not to forget his own boys, Connie said:

"There's a lot of fine ball players on my team. You'll be hearing from us next season."

Football Styles Are Vanishing

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—(INS)—The single wing and the old Notre Dame system are the vanishing Indians of modern football.

A survey of intercollegiate teams by Football Digest showed today that the T-formation outnumbered the other styles 5 to 2.

Five of every seven teams among the 350 leading universities and colleges are either relying solely on the orthodox "T" or some variation of it.

Only 56 coaches are using the single wing while Alabama and about ten other schools are the remaining survivors for the Notre Dame system. Most of the latter are combining the Notre Dame style of offense with other patterns.

Sting McKee Takes Sweepstakes Honors

Weekend Sweepstakes at the New Castle Country Club took a back seat to the Club championship matches. Nevertheless, low scores and keen competition continued to dominate the regular summer feature.

Sting McKee took the honors in Class A on Saturday with a card of 75-5-70. Whitey Gould's 74 was the best medal score. Jim Foster Jr. topped the list of B-class handicappers by posting an 82-11-71.

Saturday's results:
Class A—Sting McKee, 75-5-70; Whitey Gould, Jr., 74-3-71; Ed Smith, Jr., 75-4-71.

Class B—Jim Foster, Jr., 82-11-71; Don Long, 91-19-72.

Sunday's results:
Class A—Ed Smith, Jr., 79-5-75; Ernie Stitzinger Jr., 81-6-75; Dick Whittaker, 82-7-75.

Class B—John Thayer, 86-14-72; Ernie Stitzinger, Sr., 88-16-72; Abe Gonick, 92-20-72; Bill Wallace, 95-23-72.

Ezzard Charles Having Troubles

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 31.—(INS)—NBA heavyweight titleholder Ezzard Charles has the unique distinction of being a fighting champion with fighting managers.

The difference between Charles and his managers, however, is that Ezzard wants to do his fighting in the ring while his managers are fighting among themselves.

Would Meet Maxin
The Cincinnati Boxing Commission announced yesterday that Charles had promised to defend his laurels against Joey Maxin in Cincinnati sometime in November.

Promoter Benny Becker said that Charles had promised to defend his laurels against Joey Maxin in Cincinnati sometime in November.

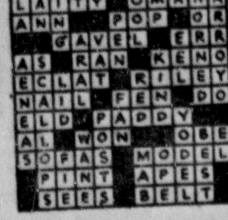

Minz of Pittsburgh claims to be Charles' sole manager. But Charley Dyer, Eugene Elkus and George Ryan of Cincinnati say they are the managers of the National Boxing Association's recognized champion.

Minz and the three Cincinnati managers stopped their private feud long enough to catch their breath and say Charles would not fight in Cincinnati.

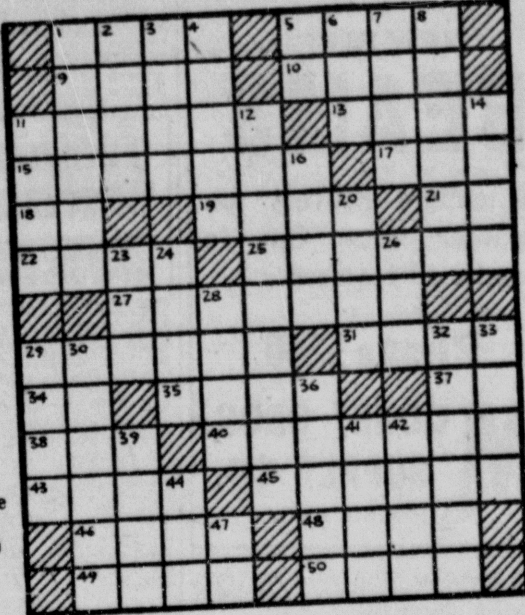

The addition of six candidates coupled with the loss of two others brought to 49 the number of players attending the twice-daily pre-season football drills at Geneva College.

King Football Ascends Throne

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—(INS)—King Football began the climb to the sports throne today with the opening of drills in the Western Conference and at Notre Dame, Marquette and the University of Detroit.

Some 850 players answered the practice call for what may be the greatest battle for midwestern gridiron supremacy in a decade.

Ticket sales indicate that the fans already are aware that this may be the year of years. Michigan has expanded its stadium to hold 97,000 spectators and additional stands at Northwestern will now permit the seating of 55,000 persons.

Sell-Outs
Notre Dame reports that a half dozen of its games are sell-outs. The fighting Irish have played 28 games without a defeat, so their attendance boom is hardly surprising.

Michigan will be defending a 23-game winning streak in addition to its Western Conference and mythical national title.

The Wolverines again are rated as a powerhouse along with Minnesota, Ohio State and Northwestern.

Even 'Die-Hards' Working To Unite U.S. Armed Forces

Secretary Of Defense Johnson Tells Legionnaires Waste Being Eliminated

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31. — (INS)—Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson told the American Legion convention in Philadelphia today that even the "die-hards" are now working toward real unification of the armed forces.

Pledging his determination to slash military expenses "at the rate of about a billion this year," he explained that the saving can be accomplished by eliminating waste and duplication.

Waste Efficiency
"We have declared war on these two enemies of efficiency and will wage it with vigor and determination," Johnston declared.

"By saving money on defense expenditures, unification will serve to strengthen our national economic structure, which is still one of the principal bulwarks for peace."

Johnson said the army, navy and air force are "getting better every day—stronger and more efficient."

"Moreover," he explained, "they are rounding themselves into one team—a team that will make all enemies stop, look and listen before attempting aggression across our tracks."

Savings in military expenditures, he said, must not be accomplished by cutting service payrolls or sacrificing the quality in weapons or equipment. He added:

"Only if we are strongly prepared can we hope to have peace in the atmosphere of the world today."

Draws Parallel

The defense secretary drew a parallel of the world situation following two world wars. He said:

"So far peace has been something elusive. Twice in our lifetime we had it in our hands. Twice we let it slip away. Now we have it again within our grasp and this time we must be determined not to let it go."

Johnson added:

"We shall build our ramparts so strong that no aggressor will dare attack us. We must achieve peace, and we will achieve it. We will achieve it in the only way possible in this world of today—affirmatively—by unmistakable strength on land and sea and in the air."

Johnson told the Legionnaires that just as Japan—then our ally—began plotting aggression as

World War I ended, so was Russia "already on the move" with the end of World War II.

But, he explained:

"We caught ourselves in time. Now we are fully awake, grimly determined that history shall not repeat itself."

Dogs have only learned to bark since being domesticated by man. Wolves, foxes and wild dogs do not bark.
